SIGNIFICANT MOVES BY THE JAPANESE.

Vigorous Actions Against the Russians on the Yalu Are Indicated.

Occupation of Chiuliencheng is Reported—Crossing Effected in the Face of Artillery Fire—Naval Demonstration at the Mouth of the River—Port Arthur Batteries Fire on Torpedo Boats—Transport Sunk.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHEFOO, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] News has reached here from an authentic source of significant movements on the Yalu, foreshadowing decisive events. The Japanese seem resolved to undertake vigorous offensive action against the Russian forces holding the northern bank of the river. The combined naval and military seizure of the island of Samalindo and the establishment of several pontoon bridges have been followed by troops crossing in considerable strength. Some accounts say the crossing was successful and that the opposition offered was very slight; others say that the invaders were beaten back.

In support of the first account, the report runs that the Japanese have occupied Chiuliencheng, on the right bank of the Yalu, above Antung. The details which have reached here are circumstantial. The crossing commenced April 25. The pontoons were towed across the river by torpedo boats and placed in position under cover of their fire. It could have been no easy matter, the river being three miles wide and impeded by blocks of ice and frozen snow. The Russian resistance was desperate, but brief. Their artillery did little damage, and destroyed only one torpedo boat. The Japanese infantry, numbering four or five thousand crossed with very trifling loss.

The same day, a naval demonstration was made at the mouth of the Yalu. The Japanese admiral, Hosoya, commanding the Third Squadron, ascended the estuary with some gunboats, and came under the fire of the Russian field battery, posted nearly opposite Yongampo, to which the gunboats responded. The following day, a body of Cossacks, about a hundred strong, attacked a launch that had ventured too near the shore, but were repulsed, and fled into the mountains.

There is reason to believe that Hosoya's squadron is part of the fleet engaged in convoying and covering an expeditionary force intending a disembarkation to the west of the Yalu, at Tatungkeo or Takushan, taking the Russian line on the Yalu in reverse.

SANK TWO MORE TRANSPORTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHEFOO, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is reported here that the Russians today sank two more Japanese transports at Yuensan.

DELAY DUE TO COLD

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LIAO YANG, April 28.—The delay of the forward movement of the Japanese into Manchuria is due to the exceptionally severe weather. It is rumored that there is considerable suffering among the Japanese troops, due to the intense cold and illness.

JAP TORPEDO BOATS SIGHTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORT ARTHUR, April 28.—Japanese torpedo boats were sighted at 1:10 this morning, covered by a Japanese squadron. A few shots were fired without damage, after which the Japanese ships disappeared southward.

RUSSIAN COLUMN IS SUPPORTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, April 28.—The Temps correspondent at St. Petersburg telegraphs as follows: "A Russian column is about twenty miles from Wonson, where the Japanese garrison has fortified itself. The Vladivostok squadron supports the movement of the Russian column. Some skirmishes have occured on the right bank of the Yalu River, resulting favorably to the Russians. Thus far, only the advance guard of the Japanese has crossed the river, but the passage of the entire Japanese army is imminent."

ENGAGEMENTS ON THE YALU.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOKIO, April 28, 7 p.m.—The Japanese gunboat Maya, accompanied by several torpedo boats, entered and ascended the Yalu River Monday, April 25, and fought a series of small engagements with the Russian land forces Monday and Tuesday. Admiral Hosoya, who is in command of the third squadron, has sent in a report of these operations, in which he says:

"Our detachment reached the Yalu Monday. While going up the stream the enemy's field guns opened against us without effect. We discovered a force of the enemy on an island in midstream. We fired upon them, whereupon they fled.

"On Tuesday, the enemy's cavalry, one hundred strong, attacked us. Our launch and our torpedo boat No. 69, replied to their fire, and the enemy fled into the mountains, leaving several wounded behind them.

"At 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the enemy opened fire on us from Antsushan. We replied, and silenced them after half an hour. There was no casualty on our side."

SILENCED THE CZAR'S MEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The following cablegram from Tokio has been received by the Japanese minister here:

"The commander of the Japanese detachment sent to the Yalu reports that the detachment arrived on the 25th at the mouth of the Yalu, and that while ascending the river the Russian artillery fired upon the detachment from the bank opposite Yongampo, but without effect. Russian cavalry appeared at the delta of the river, but retreated, upon being fired upon by the Japanese naval detachment.

"About 100 Russian cavalrymen fired upon the Japanese steam launches, whereupon the Japanese torpedo boats answered, and the enemy fled behind the hills, leaving many wounded. There were no casualties on the Japanese side.

"About 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the 26th, the enemy again fired upon the Japanese from the direction of Antung. The Japanese replied, and the Russians were silenced after about an hour's fighting. The Japanese sustained no loss."

WHOLE COUNTRY FLOODED.

GREAT RAINS IN CHINA.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Tien-Tsin correspondent of the Standard says that, as a further result of the tremendous rains, the whole country outside of the Great Wall is flooded. Consequently, active movements by either side appear impracticable for the present. He says that his previous statement that the Japanese intend to advance on Mukden by the northern route will prove correct probably.

Although the Manchurian country through which the Japanese must pass is mountainous and wooded, and the work of transport must be slow and laborious, still the road would be more passable than the flooded districts in the South.

The Japanese Minister at Peking has protested against the Russians procuring cattle and provisions at Kalgan, so the Chinese Foreign Ministry has instructed the Tartar general there to investigate the matter.

OUTSPOKEN MAJ. TATZOZERO. TELLS OF JAPS' SENTIMENTS.

SYMPATHIES OF CHINESE.

They Are Not With Russia, But They Also Are Not With War Proposition.

[illegible] Cable.] Mr. Rosen, the Chinese Minister, in an interview today, said that his government could not view with satisfaction Russia's indefinite occupation of Manchuria, but that it was determined to maintain good relations with the Russian government. War, the Minister, said, was not desired at Peking. If any counselors existed who were unreasonable enough to propose to attack Russia while that country was engaged with Japan, they would not meet with any credit from Chinese statesmen familiar with foreign affairs.

"China has no interest in attacking Russia," continued the Minister. "We are fully aware that intervention might cause dangerous complications, the outcome of which would be fatal to China herself. Whatever our sympathies may be, we will not launch our country into a wild venture.

"Our trained troops near the Great Wall do not exceed 20,000, and it is not with such a force that the Russian army could be conquered. Japanese aid would not help us much, and moreover, the court is not anxious to introduce the Japanese army into China, even for the purpose of defending that country.

"At the same time, it is certain that the Chinese masses are favorable to Japan. Our government's sole care, according to my latest advices, is to restrain popular excitement, and the strictest orders have been given to the local authorities to use even unaccustomed rigor for the purpose of preventing risings. I sincerely trust that those precautions will suffice, even in the event of the Japanese success, but it might be remembered that our subprefects have very inadequate means of enforcing obedience when the masses become greatly excited. The only danger of complication lies in a spontaneous rising of the people."

STRONG SECRET SOCIETY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, April 29.—The Standard's Tien-Tsin correspondent reports that a strong secret society movement, anti-governmental and anti-foreign, is in progress in the vicinity of Tsinan Fu (175 miles south of Tien-Tsin,) and that the people are flocking to the city for safety.

CONVICTS SLASHED.

Desperate Fight at Yuma Prison.

"Three-Fingered Jack" Leads in Break for Liberty. Stopped by Force.

Life of Supt. Griffith Saved Only by Devotion of Buck, Serving a Life Term.

One Death Will Result from Affray and Several Others Are Dangerously Hurt.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

YUMA, (Ariz.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A fearful attack was made at 8 o'clock this morning by ten of the most desperate characters of the Territorial Prison at Yuma, but failed, like many other attempts of the same kind. The officers, though taken by surprise, were equal to the emergency, and the tragedy incident to the attack is found in the fact that three participants may die.

Some business transactions relative to the yard were being discussed by the superintendent and his deputy, Wilder, when the latter observed ten men armed with knives, ready to spring upon them. He grabbed and threw to the ground the foremost, and with a knife thrust just over the heart laid him out and then knocked him on the forehead with a club. Superintendent Griffith shouted to the guard, standing just above, to fire at the escaping convicts. Four shots struck the crowd, wounding [illegible] the leg and [illegible] the [illegible]

[illegible] fearful wounds in his arm and side. Covered all besmirched with his own blood, with two butcher knives he made a fearful slashing among the convicts, and when on the point of falling told the guard that he was stabbed in several places.

THREE MAY DIE.

There were six wounded and three may die, and, though Wilder may pull through, it is yet uncertain as to the location of his wound. The ringleader of the gang was "Three-Fingered Jack," who is an Italian. The rest are Mexicans, and they will have a severe time of it, as they are now all incarcerated in solitary cells, while the ringleader is confined to a boulder, with his feet shackled.

The guards and officials, though somewhat taken by surprise, made the best resistance that could have been conceived on so short a notice. Had it not been for the timely assistance of the convict Buck, the escapes would have killed the superintendent and his deputy; but they could not have made their escape even then, as all the gates were closed, making egress impossible.

There are six men in the prison hospital, and Dr. Kelcheraide, the attending surgeon, when asked relative to the wounded official, said that he did, not consider his case very severe, though it might require several days to restore him.

There is much hope that Buck may recover and this time he will be pardoned by the Governor. There is a petition out now for his release. He comes from Globe for killing a man and has a life sentence.

ANOTHER VERSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) April 28.—This morning, at Yuma Prison, while Superintendent William Griffith and Assistant Superintendent U. G. Wilder were making the morning rounds of the prison and were in the yard, not far from the gate, they were assaulted by over a dozen convicts armed with knives and clubs. An attempt was made to rush them toward the prison gate to secure the key of Gate Keeper Clark. Griffith ordered Guard Stevens to fire from the wall, regardless of his own danger; he did so, and five or six of the convicts were shot, none fatally. At the same time, W. C. Buck, a lifetermer acting as cook, came to the rescue of the officers, armed with a knife, and began slashing his fellow-convicts, cutting one, probably fatally.

The party was rushed toward the gate, where it was met by Prison Secretary W. T. Gregory and the gatekeeper, who assisted in overpowering the convicts. Wilder was shot in the thigh and beaten badly—some reports also say stabbed, but his injuries are not fatal. Griffith's life was saved by Buck.

The revolt was headed by William M. Laustannau, known as "Three-fingered Jack," who was sent to the penitentiary for inciting riots at Morenci last summer, when the militia and Federal troops were called out to restrain the striking miners. Buck was sentenced for life for killing Adolfo Borques, in Globe, a few years ago.

THE VERY LATEST.

WAR NEWS AFTER MIDNIGHT.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Official Messenger publishes a circular issued by the Foreign Office to Russian representatives abroad, declaring categorically that Russia will not accept mediation to terminate the war, which, the circular declares, was forced on her. Neither will Russia, it is declared, allow the intervention of any power whatsoever in the Russian-Japanese negotiations after the war.

REPORTED RUSSIAN REPULSE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SHANGHAI, April 29, 2 p.m.—It is reported here that the Russians have suffered a disastrous repulse after two days' fighting on the Yalu River. The Japanese forces crossed the river, and the Russians retreated.

JAPAN'S HUMANE RULES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The advanced position taken by the Japanese in the adoption of humane rules of war is strikingly shown in a report to the State Department from United States Minister Griscom, from Tokio, in which he encloses a communication to himself by Baron Komura, the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs. The minister shows that Japan is the first country to give full effect to the elaborate code of laws governingwar, laid down by The Hague conference. He announces that there has already been put into operation by the Japanese the rule of war regulating the disposition of letters, money orders and valuables between the prisoners of war and their friends in their own country.

The Japanese government has also ordered that such prisoners be supplied with postal facilities, communication and means of receiving gifts. Also that they be not subjected to any railway charges.

REFORMER'S HARD LOT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SHANGHAI, April 28.—The reformer Wang Chao, who was disgraced on account of his friendship for Kang Yan Wei, the agitator, returned recently to Peking and was immediately arrested and sentenced to imprisonment for life, at the instigation of the Manchu Prince Natung.

THE KAISER'S SENTIMENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

KARLSRUHE (Baden) April 28.—Emperor William, accompanied by the Empress, who met His Majesty at Strassburg, arrived here this evening. The chief burgomaster welcomed Their Majesties, and expressed the joy of the German people at the Emperor's recovery. He also referred to events in the Far East.

Emperor William, responding, said he held it to be his duty to visit his dear relatives and give them proof of his complete restoration to health. He said he hoped the peace of the world would not be disturbed, and that the events which were being enacted before the eyes of the world would steel German courage, and that his people would be found united if it became necessary to intervene in world politics.

NURSES FOR RUSSIANS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, April 28.—A party of young women who are on their way to Port Arthur to act as Russian nurses arrived in Chicago today. The party is under the leadership of the Countess of Bavanda, who has lived several years in Russia. Countess Bavanda is an American by birth, a native of New Orleans. The six ladies accompanying the Countess belong to prominent families in New York, Boston and Pittsburgh.

WAR BULLETINS FROM MANY POINTS.

IRKUTSK, April 28.—Grand Duke Cyril has arrived here. Prince Hilkoff, Minster of Railroads, has left here for Lake Baikal.

BLACK SEA FLEET CHIEF.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28.—Rear-Admiral Korsakoff, the Governor of Archangel, has been appointed commander of the Black Sea fleet.

CONTRACTS FOR COAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, April 28.—It is said that large contracts for Welsh coal are being placed at Cardiff by both Russian and Japanese agents.

THE SUBMARINE BOATS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORT ARTHUR, April 28.—One of [illegible] were put into commission April 24 was received in sections at Port Arthur before the war began. At the first opportunity it is intended that the submarine vessels shall be employed against the heavy vessels of the enemy.

RUSSIAN PRESS AROUSED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST .PETERSBURG, April 28, 1:12 p.m.—The Russian press is aroused over the talk of mediation, and is inclined to attribute the responsibility for the proposal to the Anglo-French agreement, the result being the agreement does not obtain favor. The Novoe Vremya declares the Anglo-French understanding has rendered poor service to Russia in prompting the idea of mediation, and adds: "It is idle to expect an Anglo-French understanding as a result of the Anglo-French entente. It will take a long time for Great Britain to reach Russia's confidence."

NEW COMBUSTIBLE.

The Port Arthur correspondent of the Russky Invalid writes: "The Japanese have invented a new combustible. It is inextinguishable. They tried to burn the battleship Retvizan by setting adrift rafts loaded with this burning material. The Retvizan sank them, but the combustible contained to burn under water. A Japanese 12-inch shell exploded in the yard of Gen. Stoessel's house, outside Port Arthur. It broke a rooster's leg."

LOAN WITH FRENCH BANK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, April 28.—The Temps, in its financial article today, says: "The question of a Russian loan has not advanced during the last few days. The only thing settled is that a loan will be placed shortly, and that French banks have decided to undertake to place it."

NO $6,000,000 LOST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28, 6:47 p.m.—The Admiralty denies that treasure amounting to $6,000,000 went down with the battleship Petropavlovsk. No Russian warship carries more than $50,000.

ATTACK ON KOUROPATKIN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28.—Rumors circulated of further attempts on the life of Gen. Kouropatkin, the commander-in-chief of the Russian army in the Far East, are denied. Gen. Kouropatkin is at Liao Yang, and in good health.

REVIVE PEOPLE'S SPIRITS.

VLADIVOSTOK FLEET'S MOVES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 29, 2:05 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The preparations of the Vladivostok squadron have revived the spirits of the people of St. Petersburg, who have been downcast since the destruction of the Petropavlovsk and the consequent confinement of the remnant of the Port Arthur fleet to the harbor.

The fact that the navy is doing something of an offensive character appeals to the popular mind, which has been unable to appreciate the reason for the inactivity of the fine ships of the Vladivostok squadron.

It is generally recognized that Rear-Admiral Yeszen cannot do more than frighten the Japanese and compel them to exercise greater caution in their military movements, as the sinking of a few transports, or even cruisers, can have no permanent effect on the result of the war. Moreover, he is bound by his instructions not to risk his ships unduly, the intention being to keep them safe for an attack with the Baltic fleet when it arrives in the Pacific.

The possibility of a Japanese attempt to mine the entrance to Vladivostok, as was done at Port Arthur, is considered, but the conditions are different, and besides, Rear-Admiral Yeszen, with the lesson of the Petropavlovsk disaster fresh in his mind, will observe the utmost caution.

St. Petersburg is loaded with rumors regarding the sinking of the Japanese military transport, the Kinshiu Maru. One report has it that 3600 men were aboard the transport when she went down, but the Admiralty insists that there were only 200. It insists that the Emperor is highly indignant over the affair, and that he will relieve Yeczen and order him to be court-martialed. This report lacks confirmation in reliable naval circles, where it is reiterated that no other course could be pursued, and that the admiral only fired when the Japanese categorically refused to surrender and adopted a hostile attitude.

The officials say that there is no similarity between the sinking of the Kinshiu Maru and the destruction of the Kow Shing, which were sunk by the Japanese before the declaration of war with China, as Russia is at war with Japan. That Admiral Yeszen gave the men every opportunity to leave the ship is proved by the fact that all of the officers, some of the soldiers, the crew and coolies were transferred on board a Russian cruiser.

[The day that hostility began with China and Japan, July 25, 1894, the Kow Shing, a British dispatch boat which was conveying Chinese troops, was attacked by Japanese warships and sunk. Many of the troops were killed.]—Associated Press.

JAPAN OVERWHELMED.

TOO MANY CORRESPONDENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The great number of newspaper correspondents dispatched to the Far East has overwhelmed the Japanese government, and United States Minister Griscom today cabled the State Department from Tokio that further applications in behalf of correspondents for permission to accompany the Japanese forces in the field cannot be granted. It is estimated that there are already at least 200 American and European correspondents traveling with the Japanese army.

MEASLES KILL ESKIMO.

WINNIPEG, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All Eskimo living in McKenzie Basin, except ten families, have been killed by the ravages of measles. Before the epidemic there were forty or fifty families, or two hundred or more persons.

FIFTY BODIES TAKEN OUT.

Coal Mine at Taocini in Spain the Scene of a Terrible Disaster.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MADRID, April 28.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The caving-in of a coal mine at Taocini, Seville, today, buried many miners. Fifty bodies have been recovered. Ten of the miners were rescued but all of them are badly injured.

LABOR.

UNPAID DUES CLOSE MINE.

Unionites Order Company to Discharge Man.

Owners Turn Down Dictators, Who Lose Jobs.

Merchants Order Brooms of Boycotted Blind Makers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DRYTOWN, April 28.—Nearly 100 union miners refused to go down the shafts this morning at the Fremont Consolidated Mine with one union miner not in good standing. They claimed he was behind in his dues, unfair and not fit for them to associate with and ordered the company to discharge him. This the company refused to do, claiming they hired union and non-union alike. The miners still refused to go down. They were discharged and the mine closed down.

The company says it will not resume operations until it can get miners that will allow the owners to operate its own property. The closing of the mine will throw 150 men out of employment and be a great setback to the mining interests of Drytown district.

SANTA FE MACHINISTS STRIKE.

EXODUS AT ALBUQUERQUE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.) April 28.—Sixty-five machinists, helpers, and handy men employed at the Santa Fé shops have struck because the company put to work twenty-six non-union machinists. Two foremen were discharged for refusing to work with the new men, and one foreman struck with the machinists. The men left the works peacefully, and, although a large force of armed guards patrol the property of the company, its services do not appear to be required.

The presence of the guards, most of whom are Mexicans, is assigned by the strikers as one of the principal causes of the walk-out. Most of the new men carried revolvers strapped to their waists when they went to work, but the strikers manifested no disposition to molest them. It is reported that the steam fitters, boiler makers, and the blacksmiths to the number of seventy-five, will also quit work.

MANAGER MUDGE'S VIEWS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) April 28.—General Manager Mudge of the Santa Fé said today that although the officials of the road were hoping that the trouble with the International Association of Machinists had blown over, a strike seemed inevitable. This opinion is entertained not only by Mudge, but by other officials who are in close touch with the situation. Even the machinists say that a strike is coming soon, in view of the fact that men have already gone out at Point Richmond, San Bernardino and Albuquerque.

General Manager Mudge says the places of strikers will be filled with non-union men. No difficulty in getting plenty of workmen is anticipated by the road.

PREPARING FOR THE STRIKE.

SAN FRANCISCO SITUATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Apparently, there was no change in the street-car situation today. It is known, however, that the officers of the United Railroad are making preparations to meet the strike which is generally believed to be inevitable. It is said that arrangements are being perfected by owners of vehicles of all kinds to parcel out the city into districts and carry citizens to the outlying sections from the business quarter.

It is also stated that many unions have voted that members shall not board the cars during a strike, should the company succeed in operating their lines.

STATEMENT ISSUED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—As the day approached for the expiration of the agreement between the United Railways and the Carmen's Union, the hope of a strike being averted is dwindling away. Late today Arthur Holland, president of the United Railways, issued a statement in reply to a request for further consideration of the demands made by the men. The statement says:

"After earnest consideration, the board of directors directs me to state that the final agreement submitted to you April 21, included every concession this company can make and retain the control of its business and enable it to perform its duties to the public."

After repeating the assertion that the company would not discriminate against union men, Holland enters into the question of the right to hire its own employes and dwells on the demand of the men that all employes must join the union within sixty days. He says that under this arrangement the company would be forced to discharge all men not acceptable to the union.

Holland, in concluding, says: "We earnestly desire a contract with the union, and we ask it to sign before May 1, the amended proposal as submitted by us. If the men on the cars strike now and leave the employment of the company they will discharge themselves, and will have no further right, interest or privilege in the business of the company; and should they make any effort to prevent the proper movement of our cars it will be illegal and unwarranted, and we believe it will not be permitted by the authorities or approved by the public."

The Executive Committee of the union considered the statement of the company tonight, and will prepare a brief reply. The members of the union will probably be called to vote tomorrow or Saturday on the question of striking.

HAYWOOD WARRANT ANNULLED.

SURPRISE AT TELLURIDE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, April 28.—A Republican special from Telluride says that upon the order of Dist.-Atty. Samuel G. McClelland, the warrant issued by Justice Lilley for the arrest of Wilbur D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, on the charge of desecrating the flag, was today annulled. This disposes of any attempt on the part of the civil authorities to bring Haywood to Telluride. The action of the District Attorney came as a surprise to the people, and no explanation has been offered.

To Call Off Colorado Strike.

SALT LAKE, April 28.—A private dispatch received today states that the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America met in Indianapolis yesterday and decided to call off the coal strike in district No. 15. This district includes the Carbon county fields of Utah, where the men have been on strike since last winter, and the States of Colorado, New Mexico and Southern Wyoming.

No Action Yet Taken.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 28.—Members of the national executive board of the United Mine Workers, which is in session here, state positively that no official action of importance has been taken relative to calling off the Colorado strike, the deliberations up to this time having been confined to routine organization matters.

DENVER, April 28.—A further continuance of ten days was granted by Justice Hynes today in the case of Secretary W. D. Haywood of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with desecration of the flag.

DESPERADO KILLED.

Mysterious American Outlaw Slain by Posse of Pursuers in Lower California.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN DIEGO, April 28.—A few days ago a dispatch from Ensenada, Lower California, told of the doings of a mysterious American outlaw, who was heavily armed and had fired upon Mexicans several times. This evening news comes from Tia Juana that the desperado was killed today by a posse. The latter started out from Tia Juana and found him about thirty-five miles below the line. He concealed himself behind a pile of rocks and fired upon his pursuers. They returned the fire. Finally, the fugitive showed his head above the rocks and a member of the posse shot him, killing him instantly. The body will be taken to Tia Juana, and an effort will be made to identify him. Below the line there appears to be a belief that the outlaw was Dunham, the San José murderer, who was supposed to have gone into Lower California after his ghastly crime of several years ago.

NEW YORK CONSERVATORY.

NEW YORK, April 28.—New York is to have a liberally-endowed conservatory of music within a few months if nothing occurs to change present plans. Jacob Loeb, a son of the late Solomon Loeb, it is announced, will give $500,000 as a nucleus of such an endowment and ten of his friends, it is also understood, will each subscribe $50,000. Among those interested in the project is Andrew Carnegie, who is said to have offered to the Conservatory the use of Carnegie Hall. The funds arising from interest on the endowment would be largely used for salaries, and they will be made sufficiently large to attract the best musicians available. The new conservatory will not be a free school. The running expenses of the institution will be met from the tuition charged.

HUNGARY PLEASED AT FAILURE.

BUDAPEST (Hungary) April 28.—Dispatches from Washington announcing that Senator Lodge's proposition to exclude from the United States all aliens "whose immigration is induced by agreements between foreign governments and steamship companies" has not been enacted into law have been received with lively satisfaction in government circles. It is now believed that the agreement with the Cunard line is not likely to meet with further obstacles. Credit for this favorable turn of affairs is attributed to intervention of Dr. Hengelmueller, the Austrian Ambassador, who explained to the United States that the agreement with the Cunard line was not intended to encourage immigration, but rather to restrict it.

LAWSON TO WAR ON JOHN D.

NEW YORK, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The World says: "Coincident with the announcement of Thomas W. Lawson's retirement today from the firm of Lawson, Arnold & Co., and from the Stock Exchange, came the announcement of the resignation of Jesse Lewisohn as one of the managers of the United Metal Selling Company, which is the selling agent of the Amalgamated Copper Company. It was reported in Wall street late today that the two men are preparing to wage a joint conflict on Standard Oil interests in Amalgamated Copper and that some sensational developments, in which a great many Amalgamated secrets will come out, may be expected."

BRITISH ARMY REFORM.

LONDON, April 28.—At a meeting of the Volunteer Yeomanry Committee in the House of Commons tonight, it was stated that Arnold Foster, Secretary of War, under the new scheme of army reform, intends to reduce the volunteer forces by 80,000; the militia by sixty-four battalions, and the yeomanry by 120 men per battalion. The meeting resolved to send a deputation to Premier Balfour to protest against this proposed reduction. It is believed that the statement of the reductions to be made in the auxiliary forces is greatly exaggerated, though it is thought possible that some smaller reductions may be contemplated. The statement caused great excitement.

BOYCOTTING THE BLIND.

Sacramento Merchants Get Back at Inhuman Labor Unions by Ordering Brooms.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, April 28.—All of the wholesale merchants of Sacramento dealing in brooms have combined in sending an order to the blind broom makers in the Home for Adult Blind at Oakland for 225 dozen brooms. This is a direct result of the appeal issued by the blind broom makers recently that they were being boycotted by the labor unions and were being deprived of the opportunity to market their product.

Although their brooms have never been sold in Sacramento, the wholesalers say they will create a steady demand for the product of the blind workers here.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE DISCUSSIONS

CHICAGO, April 28.—At today's session of the National Municipal League the draft of a proposed municipal nominating law was submitted by the Committee on Nomination Reform. George W. Guthrie of Pittsburgh spoke on the right of every citizen to a free and equal share in the selection of candidates for municipal elective officers. E. A. Hempstead of Meadville, Pa., spoke on "The use of political designations upon official ballots in connection with the names of candidates." J. Pemberton Baldwin of New Orleans spoke on "The New Orleans Situation; What a Partisan Administration Has Done."

COLLIER CAESAR ON BUOY.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The commandant of the navy yard at Key West telegraphed to the Navy Department today that the collier Caesar is grounded on Loggerhead Buoy, Tortugas group. The tug Massasoit has been sent from Key West to her assistance, and Admiral Barker has been directed to send another boat to aid her.

ANTI-SPOONING SOCIETY.

ITHACA, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An anti-spooning society is the latest creation of the women of Cornell University. The new co-ed organization aims to discipline Cornell men and teach them the rights of a co-ed. The provisions of the by-laws provide for a system of fines for violating the principles of the society.

LIFE SECRET ONLY CLEW.

Sole Way in Which Peg Leg Ann Ever Intimated that She Wasn't Really a Woman.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. JOSEPH, (Mich.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Masquerading as a woman for nearly half a century, the most widely-known character in the northern part of the county, to whom has been extended all the chivalry of the rural community, "Peg Leg Ann" is dead, and it has been found that "she" was a man.

This character had been the most mysterious and eccentric in the vicinity for 42 years. Ann lived in the woods south of the village of Watervliet, alone. "She" came to this section with a band of Pottawattamie Indians. The woods had always been her haunt and a long skirt and sunbonnet her attire. Peg operated a sawmill and blacksmith shop for 25 years. The cognomen "Peg Leg Ann" came from a peculiar limp. Old age and fever sores caused death. No one ever suspected the sex of Peg, and when death today unfolded a life secret, the community was dumfounded.

Cruiser California Launched at San Francisco.

Fine Fighting Machine With Formidable Armament.

Trouble on Among Retail Fruit Men.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The armored cruiser, California, was launched today at the shipyards of the Union Iron Works in this city.

The electric button which started the vessel on her way to the water was touched by Mrs. Walter S. Martin, daughter of Henry T. Scott, president of the Union Iron Works, and the cruiser was christened by Miss Florence May Pardee, daughter of Gov. Pardee.

The launching took place under the auspices of the Native Sons of the Golden West, whose Grand Parlor is now in annual session at Vallejo.

Gov. Pardee and staff, E. E. Schmitz, Mayor of San Francisco; Maj.-Gen. MacArthur, U.S.A., and staff; and representatives of the navy, from the Mare Island navy yard and officers of the State Militia viewed the launching from the United States tug Slocum, while four large ferry steamers carried nearly 5000 members of the Native Sons' order.

The Board of Education declared a half holiday in the public schools of the city and thousands of school children gathered at the shipyards to see the launching. Business was suspended in all departments at the City Hall and the Board of Trade took a half holiday.

Every available craft on the Bay was pressed into service to carry passengers and it is estimated that 30,000 people saw the big steel hull slip down into San Francisco Bay.

DECRIPTION OF CRUISER.

The cruiser California is supposed to embody the latest and best in vessels of her class. There are to be five vessels like her, but at present the nearest approach to her on any waters is the model British cruiser Drake. The construction of the California was authorized by Congress, March 3, 1899, and the contract for her construction was let about a year later. She will cost, complete, $5,000,000, her hull and machinery costing $3,800,000, and her equipment and armament the remainder. Her principal dimensions are:

Length on load water line, 503 feet; extreme breadth, 69½ feet; mean draught, 24 feet; displacement, 13,440 tons. She will have twin screws and triple expansion engines of 23,000 horse power; capable of developing a maximum speed of 22 knots.

The California carries out the American ideal of a fighting ship. Her main battery is composed of four 8-inch rifles placed in two armored turrets, one forward and one aft; fourteen 6-inch and eighteen 3-inch rapid-fire guns. The secondary battery consists of twelve three-pounder, semi-automatic guns, four one-pounder automatic, four one-pounder rapid-fire Hotschkiss guns, two thirty-centimeter, Gatlings, six thirty-centimeter automatic Colts, together with two three-inch field pieces to be used by landing parties.

The California will have a belt of steel armor seven and one-half inches wide on the water line and varying in thickness from three and one-half to six inches as well as the five-inch casement above the belt of armor 323 feet of the vessel's length. The end of this side armor will be joined by traverse armor four inches thick, thus forming a steel enclosure for ten of the six-inch guns. The other four six-inch guns are separately protected by five-inch armor at each corner of the superstructure. The eight-inch guns are protected by armor six inches thick on the slope.

INHARMONIOUS FRUIT MEN.

RETAIL DEALERS MAY DISRUPT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The Retail Fruit Dealers' Association, an organization composed of men who retail fruit in this city, and which has been in existence for about two years, is threatened with disruption, and several of the members have already left the organization. The trouble seems to lie in the fact that a large number of the members are of the opinion that the association is of no benefit to the trade in particular, and that the fund created by the imposition of dues and fines is put to no practical use.

The dissatisfied members claim that the association is controlled by a few dealers who are running things to suit themselves and in their own interests. The names of the men who dropped out have been placed on a black list, and the officers of the association declare that they will be prevented from securing supplies in the wholesale market, and thus be forced to retire from business unless they pay up and secure reinstatement.

The association was formed about two years ago, when the war between the Sacramento River cooperators and the local commission men was on in the wholesale fruit market.

MAY AFFECT MANY CITIES.

STOCKTON CITY CHARTER RULING

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

STOCKTON, April 28.—W. B. Nutter, Judge of the Superior Court of this county, has handed down a decision which may be of importance to many cities of the State. It is to the effect that property sold for taxes is, under the Stockton City charter, absolutely sold. It is believed that the decision will hold good in all cities operating under similar charters to that of Stockton.

The decision was rendered in the case of Anna Thompson against G. M. Wheeler to recover lot 11, block 8 west, in this city. The lot was assessed for over $1000, and the delinquent taxes amounted to $19.65, which amount Wheeler paid for the property when it was sold at a tax sale.

LIEUT. LEWIS LOCATED.

IN OMAHA, IN GOOD HEALTH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The whereabouts of Lieut. Victor Courtney Lewis is no longer a mystery, News has been received that he had reached Omaha Tuesday, from which point he is reported to have communicated with friends here. He was in good health, and report had it that it was his intention to proceed to Chicago and from there wire to headquarters his resignation from the army.

The cause of his sudden departure from the Presidio still continues to be the all-absorbing topic of conversation at the post. No dennite reason has so far been offered by even his most intimate friends as a plausible excuse for his actions.

HAWAII MILLIONAIRE HARD UP.

DILLINGHAM IN SANITARIUM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] B. F. Dillingham, a Hawaiian millionaire, is secluded in a sanitarium here while bankers and other financiers are investigating his affairs. It is asserted that the Olaa Sugar Plantation Company, of which he is the chief owner, owes $4,000,000 to local and eastern banks, for which bonds and stock of the Oahu Railway and Land Company have been pledged as security. Two millions of this indebtedness are held by eastern banks, mainly in New York. Those familiar with Dillingham's affairs say assets are greater than liabilities and that if the companies are properly handled and creditors give time there will be no loss and there need be no assignment. The heaviest creditor here is the Bank of California, which holds $500,000 paper.

Dillingham overworked himself in Honolulu and then rushed over here to arrange affairs, but he was seized with nervous prostration on the steamer, and no one is allowed to see him. He has been called "Monte Cristo of Hawaii," as he was shipwrecked on the islands without a cent, but in a few years he became rich through trading.

PLACE APPROPRIATE TABLETS.

NATIVE SONS RECOMMEND.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VALLEJO, April 28.—The Grand Parlor of Native Sons spent most of the day in a trip to the launching of the cruiser California and around the bay. The party returned about 3 o'clock and immediately went into session. A resolution was adopted thanking the Vallejo parlor for the splendid treatment accorded the Grand Parlor. C. E. McLaughlin and Daniel Ryan presented a resolution of respect to the memory of John T. Graney, Past Grand President.

The report of the California Landmarks League Committee was presented by Senator Joseph Knowland, chairman. It reviews the work accomplished during the past year, and makes some suggestions. The statement is made that $1000 will be required to complete the reroofing of San Antonio Mission Chapel. Attention is directed to the fact that the Los Angeles parlors of Sons and Daughters have made a number of improvements on the site of Fort Moore.

It is recommended that the Grand Parlor place appropriate tablets at Sutter Fort and the old Monterey custom-house, setting forth the fact that it was through the instrumenality of the order that these cherished landmarks were saved to the State, and that the Grand Parlor indorse the movement for the rebuilding of the famous Camino Real.

University Parlor of Palo Alto gave notice that it will present a resolution in the next regular Grand Parlor, proposing that the Grand Parlor of 1906 be held in Palo Alto.

NO CHANGED MEMORIAL DAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VALLEJO, April 28.—At tonight's session a long discussion was provoked by a proposition to change Memorial Day from October to May, but the date will remain unchanged.

An effort to establish a general board of relief was voted down, despite the fact that it was favorably reported.

MORE LETTERS ABOUT HYDE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Little new evidence was heard in the Hyde-Dimond examination today. A letter making charges against Hyde, which had been sent to a weekly paper, was identified and read. It was signed I. S. Winn, but its real authorship was not disclosed. It was typewritten, and when received by the paper was accompanied by a $20 bill.

Counsel for Dimond made an effort to have Hyde called as a witness in behalf of Dimond, but the attorney for Hyde frustrated the attempt. Hyde's attorney quoted an act of Congress passed March 1878, which specifies that in hearings before United States courts defendants can be called to the stand only at their own request. Commissioner Heacock decided that Hyde could not be made an unwilling witness.

NUMBER OF BISHOPS PRESENT.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION OPEN

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The opening session of the San Francisco missionary convention of the M. E. church tonight was made notable by the presence of a number of bishops. Bishop Hamilton of this city presided and Rev. F. Ollinger of Foo Chow, China, gave a scripture reading. A message from Bishop J. M. Thoburn was read and addresses were delievered by Rev. John Goucher, president of the Woman's College of Baltimore, and Bishop Moore of Shanghai, China. Benediction was administered by Bishop Earl Cranston of Portland, Or.

The final session of bishops was held today and consideration was given to the pastoral address and foreign report.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Suit Against Union Iron Works.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Charles F. Malmberg today brought suit against the Union Iron Works for $25,434 damages. He alleges that in September, 1902, while engaged on the construction of the cruiser California he was struck on the shoulder by a swinging crane and knocked against the iron sides of the hull. His knee cap was fractured, and he sustained other injuries.

Schwab at Paso Robles.

PASO ROBLES, April 28.—A private train carrying Charles M. Schwab and party arrived here this afternoon and made a stop of one hour while the party drove to the Paso Robles Hot Springs. The special left here for Santa Barbara, where the party will spend tomorrow.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A slight rise in temperature was recorded today, and a gradual increase until Sunday is promised. The wind will blow from off the lake part of the time, tempering the sunshine, and making the temperature rather lower in Chicago than in any other places in the same latitude. Maximum temperature today, 52 degs.; minimum, 40. Middle West temperatures: Alpena, 56; Bismarck, 80; Cairo, 62; Cheyenne, 60; Cincinnati, 48; Cleveland, 40; Concordia, 64; Davenport, 66; Denver, 72; Des Moines, 62; Detroit, 48; Dodge City, 66; Dubuque, 66; Duluth, 50; El Paso, 78; Escanaba, 56; Grand Rapids, 54; Green Bay, 50; Helena, 54; Huron, 70; Indianapolis, 54; Kansas City, 62; Marquette, 46; Memphis, 62; Milwaukee, 56; Minnedosa, 66; North Platte, 70; Omaha, 64; Rapid City, 74; St. Louis, 62; St. Paul, 68; Sault Saint Marie, 50; Springfield, Ill., 62; Springfield, Mo., 62; Wichita, 66.

SIX TRAINS OF METHODISTS.

Six special trains carrying Eastern delegates and their friends to the Methodist General Conference at Los Angeles arrived in Chicago this morning, and left at intervals during the day over the Santa Fé, the first to go being the train carrying the Philadelphia delegation. Among those seen at the station was Dr. T. B. Neely, secretary of the Sunday-school Union, and a candidate for the Episcopacy. Other notable figures were: Evangelist L. W. Munhall, who was accompanied by his wife and his two daughters, Mabel and Marguerite; Avery D. Herington, a well-known lawyer of Philadelphia, who has been active in the affairs of the church, and three presiding elders from Eastern circuits, Rev. J. G. Blokerton, Rev. A. G. Wilson and Rev. A. G. Barnett.

MARRIED IN ARIZONA.

Miss Virginia Pendleton Orrick of Cumberland, Md., and Lewis Carpenter of Chicago, were married at Prescott, Ariz., today. The groom is a son of Newton H. Carpenter, secretary of the Chicago Art Institute. He owns a ranch at Riverside, Cal.

FORTUNE IN HIS SOCKS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A Chicago business man came to Milwaukee today with $25,000 in his socks to pay a mortgage. He mystified officials by having the curtains drawn and then removing his shoes. In his left sock there was a $10,000 bill and in the right one bills of large denominations, aggregating $15,000.

LAKE HURON'S ICE PACK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORT HURON (Mich.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The entire south end of Lake Huron is packed full of heavy ice, forced down by the northeast winds. The steamer Houghton was caught in the pack at Fort Gratiot. The buoys and stakes placed by the government steamer Marigold are being carried away.

EX-GOV. TAYLOR WIFELESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KNOXVILLE (Tenn.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A decree of divorce for abandonment was entered against former Gov. "Bob" Taylor of Tennessee today. Mrs. Taylor was a second wife, and married the ex-Governor three years ago.

OMAHA'S PLUCKY MAYOR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA (Neb.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mayor McCrae of Council Bluffs single-handed raided the gambling dens of that city today. With a pistol he held fourteen gamblers in one room until the police arrived.

LAWTON'S HEARST CLUB.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GUTHRIE (Okla.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Democrats of Lawton, Okla., last night organized a Hearst Club, with Albert Jenkins as president. Jenkins, several years ago was sentenced for life to the government prison at Columbus, O., for train robbery, being a member of the Jenkins band of outlaws. Recently he was pardoned by the President.

LAKE COMMERCE TIE-UP.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CLEVELAND (O.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A complete tie-up of lake commerce which will keep practically every vessel on the Great Lakes out of commission for an indefinite period, now seems inevitable, unless the demands of the Masters' and Pilots' Association are modified. The last vestige of hope for a peaceful settlement of the trouble vanished today, when a general meeting of the members of the Lake Carriers Association upheld the action of the Executive Committee in refusing to entertain the propositions made by the Captains' Union at the conference last week. The masters demand nine months' pay, regardless of the length of the time employed during the season, and that no member be discharged without the consent of the union.

DEMOCRATS OF IOWA REPUDIATE HEARST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DUBUQUE (Iowa) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Anti-Hearst men triumphed in the Democratic county convention this afternoon. A resolution indorsing Hearst and calling for an instructed delegation was defeated by an immense vote.

The result on Hearst's candidacy in Iowa will be very demoralizing, as Dubuque is the stronghold of the Iowa Democracy and Hearst men felt confident they would get an instructed delegation here.

DEMOCRATS IN ST. LOUIS.

PREPARING FOR CONVENTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—The subcommittee of the National Democratic Committee, in charge of the arrangements for the National Democratic Convention, to be held here July 6, convened at the national headquarters of the committee in the Jefferson Hotel today. John Shoer, chairman of the local Committee on Arrangements for the convention, submitted a report.

It was stated during the meeting that the aggregate number of tickets to be issued for the convention would not exceed 9000. Seven hundred and fifty seats will be reserved for the press. None but working newspaper men will be permitted to occupy these seats.

The committee approved Chairman Shoer's suggestion to place a telephone in every State delegation, which will connect with a platform on the main platform, and afford service to all parts of the hall.

Alabama for Senator Fairbanks.

BIRMINGHAM (Ala.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] J. O. Thompson, internal revenue collector for Alabama and one of the Federal patronage referees of the President in Alabama, in an interview today said the majority of sentiment of Alabama Republicans is for Senator Fairbanks of Indiana for the Vice-Presidential nomination.

Connecticut for Parker, Two to One.

STAMFORD (Ct.) April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Democratic National Committeeman Cummings of Stamford said tonight: "It looks now as if Parker's friends would control the Democratic State convention to be held next Thursday and Friday by a vote of not less than two to one.

Thirty Democratic Delegates.

SAN JOSE, April 28.—The Democratic County Central Committee has selected thirty delegates to the State convention at Santa Cruz to be voted for at the primary here May 3. The committee indorsed the candidacy of W. R. Hearst for the Presidential nomination at St. Louis.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.

Wireless telegraphy was established yesterday between Mare Island and Goat Island.

Miss Elizabeth G. Grant, niece of Antanio Marion of Santa Barbara, Cal., and Newport, and Stewart Edward White, the novelist, were married in Trinity Church, Newport, R. I., yesterday. Many persons prominent in New York and Newport society were present.

The possibility of Chinese laborers being used in the work of completing the Panama Canal is unfavorably commented upon by Panama newspapers. A law prohibiting Chinese immigration is in effect, and Chinamen entering the territory of the republic must register within a limited time.

Plans for issuing money orders by banks have been adopted by the executive council of the American Bankers' Association, in session in New York. The council authorized Chairman Branch to appoint a committee of five to make a contract with some surety company for guaranteeing the orders.

Prospectors are rushing to the cañon of the Shoshone River, five miles west of Cody, Wyo., where, it is reported, tellurium ore assaying several hundred dollars in gold and silver has been discovered. All available ground for miles up and down the river from the scene of the reported discovery has been located.

At Basin, Wyo., Daniel Lee Morse, who was accused of having been a leader of the mob that lynched Murderers Walters and Gorman and killed Officer C. E. Price, last July, was discharged yesterday for lack of evidence after the examination of all the witnesses for the prosecution. It is thought the other mob cases will be nolled.

Six special trains from the East, carrying delegates to the Methodist General Conference at Los Angeles, reached Chicago yesterday, and left immediately for the West, via the Santa Fé. The delegates included ministers, as well as laymen, and quite a number of women. The trains will make short stops at points of particular interest on the Santa Fé.

It was announced on the Boston exchange yesterday that Thomas W. Lawson had severed his connection with the firm of Lawson, Arnold & Co., bankers and brokers. The firm holds membership in both the Boston and New York Stock exchanges.

At Paris, Ernest De Ligne, late secretary to Don Jaime, son of Don Carlos, pretender to the Spanish throne, was sentenced yesterday to ten months' imprisonment for pawning the famous jeweled necklace of Marie Antoinnette, which descended to Don Jaime. De Ligne maintained that he was carrying out the transaction for Don Jaime, but the jewelers contradicted him.

A diamond swindle of startling boldness, in which one of the finest residences of Chicago was used by the swindler as a clearing-house, is being investigated by a score of operatives from a private detective agency. Jewels to the value of $1100 were obtained by the swindler.

D. Charles De Molli, the Italian editor, who is under indictment for sending obscene matter through the mails, in now known to have left for Petersburg, Kan. A rumor has been widely circulated that he had been kidnapped and murdered. One attempt on his life has already been made in Pueblo, Colo.

It has just been learned that the Scrivener "manuscript book 1" of Milton's "Paradise Lost," bought at a recent sale in London, by an American collector, has been turned over to J. P. Morgan. The collector who procured the manuscript is now known to have been a Fifth avenue book dealer. He paid $25,000 and sold his purchase to Morgan as soon as it reached New York.

George Walsh, wounded by Peter McGee, watchman at a Chicago stockyard plant, Saturday, when trying to escape, after having shot another watchman, is dead, in the Englewood Union Hospital. He was caught while stealing hams, and a revolver fight ensued. Both the watchmen with whom he fought, McGee and Arthur Clements, were killed. Walsh had an accomplice whose identity is unknown, and who escaped.

All the Eskimos living in the Mackenzie Basin, except ten families, have been killed by the ravages of measles, says the Dawson News. Before the epidemic there were forty or fifty families, with a total of 150 to 200 persons. The great ravages of the disease and the awful results are told by Bishop Breynai, who has just reached Dawson by long and tedious journeying from the south of Mackenzie.

Officials of the New York Health Department report an alarming spread of measles. Many cases have proved fatal, being followed by pneumonia. The department's weekly report shows, in the five boroughs of Greater New York, 1630 cases, with thirty-seven deaths due directly thereto and 135 deaths from pneumonia. Physicians attribute the existing conditions to the severe winter, which caused living-rooms to be kept tightly closed.

Edwin Tate, who has been arrested for holding up and robbing Theodore Schmidt, has made a remarkable confession. "I rode on the elevated trains between 11 p.m., and 1 a.m.," he said. "When I saw a man who looked easy to rob, I got off the train, ahead of him and lay in wait. That's what I did with Schmidt.'" Tate is 25 years old and an athlete. He was a member of the Fourth New Jersey Volunteers during the Spanish-American War. For a time, he published a monthly paper, known as Vesper Bells.

Regarding reports from Dubuque, to the effect that he will return to Iowa, and reside there permanently, Gen. David B. Henderson, formerly Speaker of the House of Representatives, admits that he never will spend another winter in New York. The Ex-Speaker has been practicing law since retiring from politics and is now attorney for several large corporations, but he declares that New York streets are too crowded, and the sidewalks too slippery in winter for a person with only one leg to get about without risking his life.

At New York two indictments for grand larceny in the first degree were reported by the grand jury yesterday against David Rothschild, former president of the Federal bank.

LOUBET LEAVES ROME.

Departs for Naples, Where He Will Today Witness Great Naval Review—Two Royal Travelers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ROME, April 28.—President Loubet left Rome for Naples today. His departure was spoiled by rain, which kept away many people, who otherwise would have been present. Still the route was crowded. The President was continuously cheered. He went all the way to the railroad stsion with his hat in his hand, and seated in an open carriage.

In taking leave of the authorities, M. Loubet expressed his warmest thanks to Premier Giolietti, saying he would ever be grateful to the people of Rome and would never forget the reception they accorded him. King Victor Emmanuel accompanied President Loubet to Naples, so as to be present at the great naval review there tomorrow.

Signor Giolietti was prevented from going to Naples, as he had to go to Turin, as crown notary, to be present at the baptism of the Duke of Genoa's daughter, born Monday last.

KAISER TELEGRAPHS THANKS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ROME, April 28.—Before passing the Italian frontier last night, Emperor William, who arrived at Venice yesterday on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, on his way to Karlsruhe, telegraphed to King Victor Emmanuel and also to Premier Giolietti, expressing his highest satisfaction at the warm, friendly greeting he had received throughout Italy, and thanking them heartily.

DUBLIN GIVES EDWARD OVATION

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DUBLIN, April 28.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra had a great popular ovation in the streets of Dublin today, while on their way to lay the foundation stone of the Royal College of Science. Troops lined the route, which was crowded for hours before the royal cortege arrived.

COMMISSION IS CAREFUL.

Work on Panama Canal to be Well Thought Out.

Sanitary Conditions Found to be Fairly Good.

Interesting Close of Congress. Final Legislation.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Isthmian Canal Commission members returned to Washington today after a stay of several weeks on the Isthmus of Panama, investigating the proposed line of the canal. There will be no important meeting of the commission until next week.

Rear-Admiral Walker, chairman of the Canal Commission, explained today that the commission proposes to move carefully at the beginning, and thus avoid any serious mistakes later on. The work of excavation in the Culebra cut will continue right along, however, so that the solving of any problems now presented will not greatly delay the completion of the canal. The following statement of the trip of the commission was made public today by the commission:

"The members devoted their entire time on the Isthmus to an examination of the canal line, and through the kindness of M. Renaudin, director of works for the French Company, and Col. J. R. Shaler, superintendent of the Panama Railroad Company, the members of the commission who had not previously visited the Isthmus were given every opportunity of making themselves thoroughly conversant with its physical features and with the various canal problems which it has to solve.

"The commission was pleasantly received by the government and citizens of the new republic. The sanitary conditions were fully examined into by sanitary experts accompanying the commission to the Isthmus, and matters were found in fairly good condition.

"Keen interest is felt by the inhabitants of the Isthmus in the movements of the commission and the proposed legislation for the government of the canal. The commission is expecting to organize working parties as soon as practicable, and to have them ready within a short time to proceed to the Isthmus for further investigation of important questions, and to prepare the way for the beginning of actual work upon the canal."

HITCH IN PAYMENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Notwithstanding all reports to the contrary, there is a hitch in the payment of $40,000,000 by the United States to the French government in the old Panama Canal Company. The stockholders are eager enough to get a grip on the real money for which they sold their practically worthless concessions from Colombia and the old engineering property which was rotting on the Isthmus, but bankers do not want the French money market deranged and the rates of interest they have fixed upset by the sudden deluge of $40,000,000 of real money.

The Bank of France, a government institution, through which, under the French law, the money must be distributed, is particularly uneasy on this point. Instead of a shipment of $40,000,000 in gold coin, it wants the money transferred by easy stages in trade balances.

THE APPROPRIATIONS.

HEMENWAY'S FIGURES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The Republican and Democratic views of appropriations made thus far by the Fifty-eighth Congress were presented to the House by Chairman Hemenway of the Appropriations Committee and Representative Livingston of Georgia, the ranking Democratic member of that committee.

After reviewing the expenditures for the next fiscal year, Mr. Hemenway concluded: "The expenditures of our government in their aggregate as exhibited by the appropriations of Congress, are large, and by unthinking persons and especially by misguided newspapers are denounced as extravagant, and yet, according to the very best authority, our national government is the most economically administered of any in the civilized world."

THE GRAND TOTAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The total appropriations made by this Congress aggregated $781,574,629, according to Mr. Hemenway. Of this sum $26,801,843 was to pay deficiencies for prior fiscal years and $56,500,000 is set aside for application to the Sinking Fund. This leaves the total appropriation for the expenses of the government for the year 1905, $698,272,786. The total estimated revenues for this period are $704,472,960, or an excess over appropriations or authorized expenditures of $6,199,274.

Continuing, Mr. Hemenway says: "Experience has demonstrated that, one year with another, the actual expenditures of the government are about 3 per cent. less than the appropriations made by Congress, and, anticipating that the coming fiscal year will not prove an exception to this practically well-established rule, it is safe to assume that the apparent surplus of revenues over expenditures will be augumented by not less than $35,000,000, thus affording a safe margin of at least $40,000,000 between revenues and expenditures, with which to meet all legitimate deficiencies that may arise and that may have to be provided for at the next session, and also affording a considerable sum to be devoted to the Sinking Fund."

Mr. Livingston, in his statement, compares the expenditures of Democratic Congresses with Republican Congresses and adds:

"The appropriation for each of the fiscal years 1895 and 1896, as made by a Democratic Congress, do not materially vary, as will be seen, one from the other, and average only $494,618,502 for each year. The table also shows that appropriations for general expenditures made under a Republican administration by a Republican Congress for the next fiscal year have reached the startling sum of $780,575,629, or an increase over the average of the last two years under Democratic control and within a period of less than ten years.

"I do not question the honesty of those vast appropriations, either in their aggregate amount or in the details; but I challenge the wisdom of the policy of the dominant party that has made these enormous expenditures necessary through the increase of the military and naval estimates, the maintenance of which is at the expense of needed internal improvements, such as river and harbor works and public buildings. During the session which is just about to close, the representatives of the people have been denied consideration of the demands of their constitutents all along this line, and yet the appropriations for the army show an increase over what it cost in 1896 of over $54,000,000, and the navy a still greater increase of $69,000,000.

"Whatever may have been the sins of commission of this Congress, they are nothing compared to the sins of omission, denying consideration to all legislation looking to the welfare of the great masses of the people."

BIDS CONGRESS GOOD-BY.

PRESIDENT HAS BUSY DAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The President arrived at the Capitol today at 10:25 o'clock a.m to attend to his official duties incident to the adjournment of Congress. Nearly all the members of his cabinet had preceded him, and were waiting in the President's room. He was accompanied by Mr. Loeb, his secretary, and the whole executive force of the White House. A number of bills passed last night and today received his signature.

At 11:25 o'clock the President affixed his signature to the last of the general supply measures—the Postoffice Appropriation Bill. Prior to that time he had signed the Sundry Civil and General Deficiency and Military Academy Bills, in addition to scores of measures of minor importance.

The president was in almost constant consultation with Senators and Representatives concerning measures presented to him for signature. Bills relating to the various departments were referred strictly to members of the Cabinet who were present, and, as usual, they passed upon them before they were signed by the President.

At 12:45 p.m., the joint committee of the two branches of Congress, consisting of Senators Hale and Cockrell and Representatives Payne, Hemenway and Williams, appointed to notify the President that Congress was ready to adjourn, called upon the President in his room at the Capitol. The President informed the committee that he had no further communications to make to the Congress. The committee remained with tthe President less than five minutes.

The last of the important bills to receive the signature of the President were the Rivers and Harbors and Panama Canal measures. All of the surveys which the Senate provided for in the Rivers and Harbors Bill were stricken out in conference. In one of these the President had a personal interest, as it was a survey near the President's home at Oyster Bay. When he noted the fact that, among the other surveys, it had been eliminated, he signed the bill, and remarked, laughingly, that it was pretty evident that he had no influence with present administration.

Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by Theodore, Jr., and Kermit Roosevelt and Miss Kenn, were in the President's gallery of the Senate at the time of adjournment.

At 2:05 o'clock the President returned to the White House.

LAST NOMINATIONS.

AND ARE ALL CONFIRMED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The President today sent to the Senate the following nominations:

Thomas C. Humphrey, judge of the United States court for the Central District of the Indian Territory.

Louis Sulsbacher of Missouri, judge of the United States court for the Western District of Indian Territory.

William R. Lawrence of Illinois, judge of the United States court for the Eastern District of the Indian Territory.

Joseph T. Dickerson of Kansas, to be judge of the United States court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory.

The Senate confirmed all the nominations sent in today.

The following also failed of confirmation: Charles McKenna, Pennsylvania, judge of the District Court of Porto Rico.

REAPPOINTMENT OF CRUM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The President today directed the reappointment of W. D. Crum as Collector of Customs at Charleston, S. C. The President has received positive assurance that the Senate will take up Crum's case immediately on reconvening next session, and that it will be disposed of finally. Until he is confirmed, Crum cannot draw any salary, but it is said that his friends have arranged to see that he is provided with ample funds. Should he be confirmed, the government, of course, will pay him the back salary.

COL. MILLS LOSES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The nomination of Col. Mills to be brigadier-general was not called up in the executive session of the Senate and therefore the promotion fails, unless a recess appointment is made.

MINISTER AT SANTO DOMINGO.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The President has appointed Thomas C. Dawson of Iowa, at present secretary of the United States legation at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, as United States Minister at Santo Domingo. The office has just been provided for by legislation, and carries with it a salary of $5000. The President tendered the mission to Gen. E. O. O'Brien, at one time Commissioner of Navigation, but personal interests compelled him to decline it.

PAYMENT TO PANAMA.

WILL GO THROUGH MORGAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The government of the republic of Panama has indicated its desire to have $1,000,000 of the amount to be paid that country on account of the canal purchase transmitted to J. P. Morgan & Co., their fiscal agents at New York, the remaining $9,000,000 to await the arrival here of the Panama Minister in June next. The Treasury Department will comply with this request.

THE CONGRESS.

REGULAR SESSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—SENATE—The Senate began business promptly at 10:30 o'clock today in continuation of Wednesday's legislative session, and immediately afterwards agreed to the conference report on the Emergency River and Harbor Bill.

The Philippine Bond Bill, at the instance of Mr. Lodge, was taken up and read at length, the House measure being submitted for the Senate measure.

Mr. Lodge said he would not attempt to press the bill at this session of Congress, as he was aware that there would be opposition to certain features of it. He also said that he was anxious to guard against the admission of Chinese immigrants into the Philippines, and that the purpose of section 6 was not to change the United States immigration laws in the Philippines, but merely to shift their administration to the Philippine authorities.

Mr. Allison, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, submitted a series of tables, prepared by the clerks of the appropriation committees, showing an increase of $25,000,000 over the appropriations for last session. He gave the principal items of increase as follows: For the navy, $16,000,000; on account of the postal service, including rural free delivery, $8,000,000. He also stated that there is an increase of $8,832,000 in the permanent annual appropriations, the chief items being $7,000,000 for the Banknote Redemption Fund and the next most important item being $2,250,000 for the Irrigation Reclamation Fund.

Mr. Allison also spoke of the increase in the deficiency appropriations, the principal item being, in that connection, the loan of $4,600,000 made to the St. Louis Exposition. Repiying to an inquiry from Mr. Aldrich, he said that outside the loan to the exposition, the cost of that institution to the national treasury including the cost of the governmental exhibit, is about $6,500,000.

Speaking generally, Mr. Allison said the appropriations were in the main for the conduct of the government, and he expressed the opinion that they would not be criticised. He also referred to obligations assumed, and said those of this year are less than for many years previous.

While Mr. Allison was speaking Mr. Kittredge presented the conference report on the Panama Canal Bill, and it was agreed to without comment.

The House resolution fixing 2 p.m. today as the hour for final adjournment of the session was presented, and was adopted without being referred to a committee.

Resuming, Mr. Allison said the obligations, aside from appropriations, incurred at the present session amount to $24,000,000.

Mr. Culberson presented a review of appropriations for the past twelve years, covering the last administration of Mr. Cleveland and the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations. He said the total expenditures under the Roosevelt administration had been $2,640,000,000, or $211,000,000 greater than the four years of the McKinley administration, and $883,000,000 greater than in the four years of the Cleveland administration. These increases he subdivided as follows: Civil administration, $160,000,000; naval, $231,000,000; military, $284,000,000. He also said that for 1905 the total appropriations on account of the military, including pensions, would be $387,000,000, and said that, excluding the expenses of the Boer War, the military expenditures of the United States for 1905 were $82,000,000 more than those of Great Britain for that year; $131,000,000 greater than those of Germany, and $139,000,000 in excess of those of France.

Replying to Mr. Allison, Mr. Gorman placed the total appropriations of this session at $781,600,000 and the obligations incurred at over $24,000,000, or more than $800,000,000 all told, not including the appropriation for the Panama Canal. He said the figures were amazing, and predicted that it would be impossible to make expenditures at this rate without increasing taxes. He attributed the rapid increase to the ambition to make of the United States "a great world power," and said that we had reaped no harvest except the loss of life and demoralization in every branch of the governmental service.

Mr. Gorman referred to the increases for the support of the army, and said that if the present tendency should be pursued, the army would become an instrument of tyranny. He charged that it was now being organized on the plans of the German army. He also charged that the chief reason for the building up of the army and navy was to attract the attention of the crowned heads of Europe. He again charged that the early adjournment—the earliest in the history of the country—had been due to influence from the White House, and said that while delay might have been secured, it would not have changed results, and delay was not therefore undertaken by the Democrats.

Mr. Allison replied to Mr. Gorman, saying he was surprised to hear from him tha tthe adjournment of Congress was premature or unduly influenced.

Mr. Allison also characterized Mr. Culberson's tables as "old and worn out," as at the time covered by the tables the conditions of the country were different from present conditions. He said the extraordinary expenditures of the McKinley administration had been due to the Spanish War, which was forced upon the President. He combated also the statement that the expenses of the military establishments were greater than those of the European nations, saying that pension expenditures could not properly be included in such estimates.

Mr. Culberson said the figures given for other countries include their pension lists, and Mr. Gallinger called attention to the fact that the European countries grant very limited pensions.

Mr. Allison admitted that there had been an increase in the strength of the army, but said that the increase had been made as a non-partisan measure. He also said that our per capita expenditures on account of the military were smaller than those of any other country. Mr. Allison also defended the administration of the Postoffice Department, as, on the whole, economical and honest.

During the course of Mr. Allison's address, Mr. Hale and Mr. Cockrell were appointed a committee to wait upon the President and notify him of the readiness of Congress to adjourn. After performing this service, the committee returned and Mr. Hale reported that the President had been called upon and said he had no further communication to make to Congress.

Mr. Aldrich said that, in the statement made by Mr. Allison, there was included many items which were never expended, and that while the statement was valuable for comparison, it does not indicate the exact state of affairs. In 1902, for instance, when the appropriations were $730,000,000, the expenditures were only $470,000,000.

In 1899, the discrepancy was about $400,000,000. Hence, Mr. Culberson's figures did not, he said, show expenditures with even approximate correctness. He admitted, however, that the expenditures for the past year and the year before had been greater than for the years preceding the Spanish War, and necessarily so, because of the growth of the country, the principal item of increase being on account of the army and navy.

Referring to the charges of undue haste in adjourning, Mr. Aldrich said the Congress was about to adjourn because the public business had been completed. He thought the country was to be congratulated.

Mr. Gorman said that the revenue question had been evaded because it would disturb the political atmosphere.

The Senate, at 1:26 p.m., went into executive session, and when, at 1:52 o'clock, the doors were reopened, Mr. Gorman offered the usual resolution expressive of the thanks of the Senate to the President pro tem., Senator Frye. The resolution prevailed unanimously.

Mr. Frye responded briefly, and was loudly applauded. As the applause died away, the hands of the clock on the walls of the chamber indicated the hour fixed for adjournment had arrived, and promptly at 2 o'clock, the chair announced the termination of the session, saying: "The hour of 2 o'clock having arrived, the chair declares the Senate adjourned sine die."

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—HOUSE.—The House resumed its session at 10:30 o'clock, it still being the legislative day of Tuesday. Although it was admittedly the last day of the session, the usual crowds which throng the galleries upon such occasions was noticeably absent. The number of members present when the Speaker rapped for order also was smaller.

The House at once got down to business, and agreed to a number of conference reports on bills of minor importance.

The conference report on the bill establishing a government for the Panama Canal zone likewise was agreed to.

Mr. Mondell of Wyoming called up the bill to ratify and amend the agreement with the Shoshone and Wind River Indians of Wyoming, which was under consideration when the House took a recess last night.

Mr. Fitzgerald of New York continued his opposition, and secured a roll call on the passage of the bill.

Mr. Payne of New York, the majority leader, by unanimous consent interrupted the roll call and offered a resolution providing for adjournment at 2 o'clock today. Loud Republican applause greeted the announcement.

Mr. Williams of Mississippi, the minority leader, remarked that while the Democrats possibly would feel very glad to get back to their homes, they would regret for a long time the non-action of the majority of the House; that he was not anxious to leave the post of duty and leave a situation bristling with legislation that ought to be considered.

He was interrupted with loud Democratic applause, which was renewed when he declared that the Republicans of the House had a responsibility before the country and had a right to assume that responsibility and to bear the burden of it.

Defending the majority for the record they had made, Mr. Payne said that the Republicans assumed full responsibility for their action during the present session, and felt assured "that after seven years of uninterrupted Republican rule, the country will say that every important interest has been carefully guarded by the Republican party by the legislation of those seven years."

The resolution was adopted without division, and the calling of the roll resumed. The Shoshone Indian Bill was lost, by 110 to 126.

A bill was passed granting an American register for the British ship Pyrenees, under the name of Maugareva.

A bill also was passed amending the copyright law so as to prescribe a penalty for violations of that law by foreign publishers.

Mr. Payne offered the usual resolution, which was adopted, providing for the appointment of a committee of three members to join a similar committee from the Senate to inform the President that Congress was ready to adjourn.

Messrs. Hemenway, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, and Livingston of Georgia, the ranking minority member of that committee, made explanations of the appropriations of the present Congress.

Mr. Lacey of Iowa moved to suspend the rules and take up a bill granting authority to the President to restore to the naval service Midshipmen John H. Lodand of Iowa, Earl W. Chaffee of Wisconsin and Joseph D. Little of Ohio, who were dismissed from the Naval Academy November 6, 1903, for hazing. A lengthy debate ensued, which ended in the House refusing to suspend the rules and the bill was lost.

A special committee appointed to wait on the President then reported that they had called on the President, who had said he had no further communication to make to Congress.

The Speaker then announced as the special committee of the House to investigate the merchant marine, Messrs. Grosvenor of Ohio, Minor of Illinois, Humphrey of Washington (Rep.,) Spight of Mississippi and McDermot of New Jersey (Dems.)

The time was within five minutes of the hour set for adjournment when Representative Williams of Mississippi, the minority leader, amid impressive silence, was recognized to present a resolution expressive of the appreciation of the House for the fair and impartial manner in which the Speaker had presided over that body. He read the resolution (Mr. Richardson of Tennessee having in the meantime taken the chair,) and it was as follows:

"Resolved, That the House of Representatives return its thanks to its Speaker, Hon. J. C. Cannon of Illinois, for the fair and impartial and able manner in which he has presided over its deliberations and for the sturdy common sense and genial good humor which have been displayed by him and which have induced the members of the House itself, in a degree almost unprecedented, in imitation of him, to display the same sterling American characteristics in their deliberations and mutual dealings."

MR. WILLIAMS'S PRAISE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Mr. Williams, following the reading, which was punctuated with general applause, said that it was a great thing to be a Speaker of the "House of Commons" of the American republic, but that it was a greater thing not to permit the promotion to that place, one of the most exalted in the world, to turn one's head in the slightest degree, or to deflect one from the course hitherto pursued of being a plain American citizen, with extraordinary common sense and a remarkable fund of that most characteristic of all American qualities—genial humor.

This utterance provoked great applause from both sides of the House and the galleries. Mr. Williams convulsed the House by referring to a conversation he once had with the Speaker, in the course of which he said: "I will always think that you are fair, as I believe you will be."

The Speaker, he said, replied: "John, I am going to be as fair as I can consistently with the exigencies of American politics."

Mr. Williams declared that the Speaker did himself injustice when he put that limitation on his statement. "But," said Mr. Williams, "it was characteristic of the frankness and candor of the man to put in the limitation."

He then moved the adoption of the resolution, and that a committee be appointed to "bring him in." There was another outburst of applause. The resolution was unanimously adopted, on a rising vote.

Mr. Richardson then selected Messrs. Payne, Hemenway and Williams to escort the Speaker into the hall. In a few moments the committee escorted the Speaker down the center aisle, and pandemonium reigned. Democrats and Republicans alike shrieked and applauded, the occupants of the galleries joining.

When the Speaker had mounted the rostrum, Mr. Williams, standing by Mr. Cannon's side, read to him the resolution which had been adopted. The Speaker was visibly affected, and as he began to address the House he barely spoke above a whisper. However, he soon recovered his composure and, speaking in a distinct voice, said:

"I would be less than human if I did not voice my thanks to the members of the House for the kind resolution adopted unanimously by the House. It touches me more than I can express. For almost thirty years I have been a member of this body, for good or ill. The future will have to determine, if the present has not decided it. I have seen many Congresses begin and close, and during that service I have been proud, and the pride has increased from one Congress to another, to be a member of this body, that represents directly eighty millions of people. It goes without saying that in a republic all men do not agree as to proper policies, but the majority and minority, after due consideration, from time to time, have written the will of the people upon the statute books.

"In the nature of things, the contests on the hustings and in the hall of the House are spirited and earnest. I would be less than human did I not say that while, for the time being, I cooperate with the majority, after all, the minority has a function to perform, almost equal in importance to the function of the majority, and it is a matter of gratification, not only to me now, at the close of this second session of the Fifty-eighth Congress, but, as I recollect, at the close of the various Congresses of which I have been a member, that when the heat of contest has died away, there ever remains respect on each side for the other for the efforts of intelligent, patriotic, brave men who represent their constituents, according to their respective judgments.

"May this continue, and it will continue, so long as the republic lasts, until, after all, when we, as Representatives, 'strut and fret a brief hour on this stage,' we can say both to the majority and minority: 'It is well done for the endurance, the prosperity and glory of the republic.'

"I wish each member of this House a safe journey to his home; good health until the next session of Congress, when, after having come in touch with the people, he returns ready for a renewal of his work in the public interest.

"There remains nothing to do but, in pursuance of the concurrent resolution of the House and Senate, to declare the second session of the Fifty-eighth Congress adjourned without day."

The ovation to the Speaker, as he brought down his gavel, exactly at 2:10 o'clock, will be long remembered as one of the greatest demonstrations of regard ever witnessed in the House of Representatives. As one man, the Representatives arose and sang "America," the occupants of the gallery joining in. Speaker Cannon took a position near the lobby door on the Republican side, and the members filed past and bade him good-by, all the while singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," with the refrain "So Say We All of Us" to the tune of "America," closing with "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Postmaster at Hesperia.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John H. Farrell was today appointed postmaster at Hesperia, San Bernardino county.

Senators on Shipping Commission.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Senator Frye, President pro tem. of the Senate, appointed the Senate members of the Shipping Commission created by act of Congress as follows: Senators Gallinger of New Hampshire, Lodge of Massachusetts, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Martin of Virginia, and Mallory of Florida.

Missionaries in Korea.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—United States Minister Allen has cabled to the State Department a very reassuring message touching the condition of the American missionaries in Korea. Mr. Allen says the missionaries are in no danger, and will not be, as long as present conditions continue.

Manila Tobacco Workers' Petition.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Acting Secretary of War Oliver today transmitted to the House a cablegram from the Tobacco Workers' Guild of Manila, repeating their petition for a reduction of the Dingley tariff on tobacco.

Negotiation of Arbitration.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Representative Bartholdt of Missouri introduced a concurrent resolution today, requesting the President to invite the governments of civilized nations to send representatives to an international conference to devise plans looking to the negotiation of arbitration treaties between the United States and the different nations, also to discuss the advisability, and if possible agree on a gradual reduction of armaments.

General Board of Navy.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The House Committee on Naval Affairs today heard Assistant Secretary of the Navy Darling and Rear-Admiral Taylor, chief of the Bureau of Navigation, on the bill creating a general board in the navy. Assistant Secretary Darling opposed the measure on the ground that it was unnecessary and would build up the military, as against the civil power in the navy. Rear-Admiral Taylor favored the bill. The committee took no action on the bill.

Minister Powell Ill.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—United States Minister Powell, who has been ill for some time, cabled the State Department today from Santo Domingo that he is about to leave the capital for Port Au Prince, Hayti, to secure medical treatment. The Minister will not return to that republic, as Congress has provided for a division of the double ministry to Hayti and Santo Domingo, and Mr. Powell will remain Minister to Hayti, while the post of Minister to Santo Domingo will be filled by an original appointment.

WORK UPON GREAT FAIR.

Twenty-seven Thousand Men Finishing it Off.

Exposition Gates May Open to Public Tomorrow.

Exhibits Over Ninety Per Cent. Complete.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sunshine has aided the road builders at the World's Fair, and 27,000 men have been engaged all the week putting the finishing touches on the universal exposition building. President Francis's prognostication, made over a month ago, that the World's Fair would be in a position to throw its gates open to the public April 30, with all the details of the great exposition completed, is in a fair way of being realized, as the chiefs of the various departments all report that their work is practically completed.

There are employed at the World's Fair grounds 8000 men installing exhibits, 1000 of whom are in the Agricultural Building. Painters in large numbers are at work putting the final touches of paint on the building, and a host of men are cleaning up the walks and pavements. When some finishing touches and a small amount of street and house cleaning are completed, the great exposition will be ready. Where the little "shacks" which were used as souvenir stands and contractors' offices once stood, green swards now greet the eye.

Director of Exhibits F. J. V. Skiff said today: "The exhibits are already more than 90 per cent. complete, and every day makes a big difference. Eight thousand men who are employed in installing the exhibitions in large palaces will practically bring their work to completion by Friday night."

A force of 500 men is employed in the landscape department and the May panorama will be completed by Saturday, while the terraces and gardens need but a few days' work to bring them to completion also.

R. H. Phillips, chief of the engineering department, outlined the work of his division as follows:

"The sanitary sewer system, costing $75,000 and the storm drainage system, costing $190,000, are done. All of the grading, which cost about $360,000, is also finished. The cascades costing $110,000 and the lagoons, costing $80,000, with an additional cost of $152,000, for finishing the catches and lagoons, are completed.

"The lagoons have been refilled with filtered water, and now present a sparkling appearance.

"The railroads, costing $200,000, have been completed. No work remains to be done on the intermural tracks and bridges and the stations will be completed by Saturday. All that remains, therefore, is the application of power, and that is ready. The only division of my work not yet complete is the roads. All that is wanted here is a top dressing of soil and gravel."

CHILD WAS OF BARRIOS.

Boy Found on the Steps of the Church of the Madeline at Paris is Identified.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The child, who was supposed at the time to be English, who was found two weeks ago on the steps of the Church of the Madeline, has been identified as the son of the late Presidente Barrios of Guatemala, who was assassinated about six years ago. His wife has been in an insane asylum since the assassination.

IN A POLICE STATION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sun says: "Mme. Barrios was not in an asylum in August last year, though she had at that time a short sojourn in the New York Police Station, to which she had been brought by a policeman who had found her intoxicated on the streets. Next day she was bailed out by a young man who said he was her stepson, and that they were on their way to Paris. She was discharged when brought before the magistrate, and soon afterward sailed for Europe. Mme. Barrios is a native of New Orians. Her maiden name was Batts. After her husband's death she went to San Francisco, where she lived before coming to New York."

MRS. HUNTINGTON'S JUDGMENT.

NEW YORK, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judgment of more than $700,000 secured by Mrs. Arabella D. Huntington, widow of Collis P. Huntington, against Sylvester H. Knedler of Manhattan, which resulted in an order of Justice Keogh to foreclose the property on which Huntington loaned money, resulted today in a stay of sale being issued by Judge Keogh.

BOERS GOING TO MEXICO.

CHIHUAHUA (Mex.) April 28.—It is said by one of the Boer agents in this city that 500 families are expected to arrive here soon and establish a colony near Moseotta. The colony established near here about a year ago is flourishing.

THE FAR EAST.

sian army, who is a prisoner here, having been captured at Wiju, where he had lived since January last, said to the Associated Press today:

"The Russians will be driven as far as Baikal. Further than that we do not wish to go, but we will return to Manchuria and open it to the trade of the world.

"Our people are certain that they can beat the Russians, but I think when we began hostilities fifty years too soon. We are not prepared for such a serious war.

"Japan wished, above everything else, to command the sea, and she will then be free from fear of invasion and loss of territory. With the complete destruction of the Russian fleet, we believe the war will end.

"Japan's alliance with Great Britain was a stupid act, and it will be of no service to us. We know perfectly well that the Americans were never our friends, because, in the Far East, they were always our opponents. We are afraid that if Japan is victorious, the British and the Americans only will benefit. It would be foolish for Japan to ally herself with the United States, because the Americans do not intend to help us, but rather wish to exploit us."

JAPANESE TRANSPORTS SENT TO THE BOTTOM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Russian torpedo boats belonging to the Vladivistok squadron sank a Japanese military transport, the Kinshiu Maru, during the night of April 26, with all on board with the exception of seventeen officers, twenty soldiers, sixty-five of the crew and eighty-five coolie carriers. The others, who refused to surrender, were sent to the bottom with the ship. The official report of Rear-Admiral Yeszen to the Emperor is as follows:

"During the night of April 26, two Russian torpedo boats met at sea the Japanese military transport Kinshiu Maru, of 4000 tons, laden with rice and other military stores and about 1500 tons of coal. The transport was armed with four Hotchkiss guns of forty-seven millimeters.

"The Russians captured seventeen officers, eighty-five military carriers, or coolies, and sixty-five of the crew, also twenty soldiers, who surrendered. The remainder of the men, who were to form a landing party and who were left without officers, obstinately refused to surrender or go on board a Russian cruiser. Furthermore, they offered armed resistence to the Russians. 'In the end, they were sent to the bottom with the transport.'"

The number of men drowned is not given.

Admiral Yeszen also reports that besides the sinking of the Japanese steamer Goyo Maru at Wonson (Genson) April 25, the Russians, the same evening, sank the Japanese steamer Nakamura Maru, of 220 tons, whose crew was saved.

The Associated Press is informed that no further news has been received here from Wonson or from the Yalu River. Communication with these places is necessarily slow.

DIE RATHER THAN SURRENDER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28, 5:55 p.m.—The satisfaction of people of St. Petersburg at the exploits of the Vladivostok squadron is tempered with admiration for the bravery of the Japanese soldiers who were on board the sunken transport Kinshiu Maru, and who preferred to drown rather than surrender.

Rear-Admiral Yeszen's report says that 200 men went down with the ship.

The Admiralty admits that the men acted heroically, but holds that Admiral Yeszen had no other alternative than to sink the transport, since he could not spare a prize crew or hamper his swift squadron with a slower steamer.

In case of the smaller Japanese transports, the torpedo boats at Wonson, the crews were sent ashore because there was no accommodation for them on the torpedo boats.

The crew of the Japanese steamer Nakamura Maru, as well as the Japanese of the Kinshiu Maru who surrendered, have been taken to the Russian cruisers.

The Admiralty here professes ignorance as to the future plans of Admiral Yeszen, but it is believed he is in communication with Vladivostok by wireless telegraphy, and is not likely to be surprised by the Japanese squadron.

SLIPPED BY IN FOG.

FLEET SAFE AT VLADIVOSTOK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, April 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Daily Telegraph's Tokio correspondent asserts that the Russian cruisers slipped past the Japanese squadron during a fog, and regained the harbor at Vladivostok. This is the only additional news that has reached London concerning the Vladivostok squadron.

No further details have been received concerning the sinking of the Japanese transport Kinshiu Maru, which incident is much commented on here as proving that the Japanese placed too much confidence in their command of the sea, and there is no doubt that it will induce greater vigilance on the part of their commanders. There is some inclination to criticize harshly the action of Rear-Admiral Yeszen, but most of this morning's papers prefer to await particulars of the affair before passing judgment upon it.

The report that the Japanese have occupied Kieulien-Cheng has not yet been confirmed.

According to the Standard's Tien-Tsin correspondent, the whole country outside the Great Wall is abnormally flooded, and any movement of the land forces is impracticable for the present.

A special dispatch from Port Arthur says the demonstration made by Japanese torpedo boats, covered by a Japanese squadron off Port Arthur, yesterday morning, was for the purpose of creating a scare and inducing the batteries to waste their ammunition, but the Russians refrained from answering the Japanese fire.

The Copenhagen correspondent of the Morning Post says there are rumors that Russia is negotiating for the purchase of the Danish liners Hekla, Norge and Island.

DYNAMITE AND CHILDREN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28, 6:50 p.m.—Regarding the alleged attempts to destroy the Russian protected cruisers Isumrud and Jemtchug, now building at the Nevsky works by Finns, the Ministry of the Interior explains that a police inquiry has established that the report grew out of the accidental loss of a few barrels of government dynamite, which were found by children who set it on fire some distance from the shipyard. No attempt was made to blow up the ships.

NO REAL LAND WAR BEFORE SEPTEMBER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MUKDEN, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Paradoxical as it may appear, it is necessary to accustom oneself to the idea that military operations on a large scale will not begin before September, unless the Japanese should invade Manchurian territory, which henceforth will be a very risky proceeding.

At headquarters, foreign officers are said to contemplate an immense flood of Slavs, which flows by slowly, but incessantly, like a rising tide. This movement is accomplished with the greatest composure, as there is nothing equal to the sang froid of the Russian soldier.

It is stated that the wounds inflicted by the Japanese bulets in the first skirmishes have had a relatively favorable course. Thus an officer of the Cossacks, who was wounded by a bullet which passed through the umbilical region, was able to take a ride of 100 kilometers (62 miles,) a week later.

BUSINESS.

A good demand for wheat existed at Chicago and July closed strong at 88½@88⅝ and May at 88½. New York's stock exchange had a dull day. With money on almost nominal terms there is no pressure to sell stocks to realize cash, and the market is too narrow for one not forced to do so to make holdings.

THE INDUSTRIAL CONDITION.

There has seemed pending more or less check to the very gratifying industrial condition of Southern California. First came the threatened drought, which menaced our farming interests from the opening of the season until well into March. Then followed the lamentable conditions prevailing in the orange markets from the early part of January until nearly the end of March.

The season's rainfall up to the early part of March was the smallest known in forty years before. This was the more threatening because of the fact that for ten years the precipitation had been far below the average, with the exception of one season, the one preceding that now drawing to a close. For this reason the loss of the immediate grain and hay crops of the current season was not the only calamity to follow a failure to get a moderate amount of rain this spring. Even the fruit trees and vines were in danger of suffering damage, and the supply of water for irrigation was likely to be cut short.

These apprehensions were happily relieved by fairly copious and timely rains late in March, followed by one soaking rain and some showers in April. These bring the total for the season to nearly 9 inches, less, to be sure, than half that of last season, and scarcely half the average of the last twenty-five years, but enough to insure good hay crops and some barley, and to remove all danger of suffering to trees and vines or of failure in the sources of irrigation. Moreover, the grass, on the average, is good, and stock will fare well until next fall, when there is hope that more copious seasonal rains will again be the rule, restoring normal conditions in this respect. The hay crop will not be heavy, but it will be of exceptionally fine quality, and there is no reason to doubt that there will be an abundance for home use. It is also pretty certain that the barley crop, although somewhat scant, will suffice for the same needs. The Times has had a reporter out all over Southern California for five weeks past on several missions. He has closely observed the conditions, and reports that, while before the fine rain of two weeks ago grain and hay crops were looking unpromising, since this rain came these crops have revived and now promise fair results. The whole section from Bakersfield to San Diego and up the Coast to Santa Barbara is looking most beautiful. The sugar-beet growers are busy with their fields, and the factories are looking for a prosperous campaign. The bean growers are also busy and will put in a large acreage. The stock of old beans is low and prices are very high on all varieties. The market by fall will be in the best shape to absorb an unusually large crop. Deciduous fruit trees promise a good yield, as they have blossomed freely, and the walnut trees are in a vigorous condition.

The very unsatisfactory conditions in the orange markets have given place to much better conditions, and the general results of the sales made at the East in the bad months earlier in the year seem less alarming than had been looked for. Several associations of growers report that they are paying about 1 cent per pound for all pools made in the three worst months of the year, and several of these associations are able to report that they have not had a single sale that did not net at least more than freight charges, and only one or two that did not cover also all other expenses of picking, packing and shipping. Nearly 18,000 carloads of citrus fruits have gone East since the season opened, November 1, 1903, and all the navel oranges are now out of the way excepting perhaps 1000 carloads. Some of these are rather overripe to "stand up" well on the way to the market, but, on the other hand, many of them are in good condition. These will be followed by 700 to 800 carloads of seedlings, from which good results are expected. The very late bad weather at the East will hold back small fruits from the South. The apple crop is pretty well out of the way, and the East, with its teeming population, will take gladly a fair quantity of good oranges during May and June. The moderate supply of Valencias to go from here nearly always meets with a good demand from July to October 31. The summer market for lemons will probably take all the California crop at fair prices. The railroads have extended the time in which the emergency rate is to be in force on lemons, which will help out. The generous protection afforded California lemons by the Dingley tariff, while not shutting Sicily lemons out of the markets along the Atlantic Coast, does give California something of a monopoly of the markets in the great valleys of the rivers and lakes, where freight charges are pretty well equalized between our fruit and that from the Mediterranean.

If the crop of citrus fruit to go out of California amounts to 25,000 carloads, or 9,000,000 boxes, and the whole averages the growers 1 cent per pound at the packing-house door, which would be about 70 cents a box, then the gross amount received by the growers over packing and freight charges will be the sum of $6,300,000. From what has been said by the growers during the past three months it does not seem possible that so gratifying a result can be expected, and yet if the average reported by several associations of growers turns out to be general, that is what the industry would bring. Two months ago many growers stated positively that in their opinion the crop would not pay the growers half that sum. So, discounting all chances, as the matter seems to stand today, there will be less cause of complaint than there seemed to be two months, or even a month ago.

When everything is said, the great fact stands out in bold relief that a fine orange grove in an ideal situation as to soil, water supply and exposure, is still the best horticultural property on the face of the globe. If there are to be less returns on an average in the future than in the past, a thing not by any means likely, then it is the growers on poor soil, those with scant water suply, or in low, cold situations, that will go to the wall. The groves in the right places and properly cared for will forever be all right.

In all other respects the industrial conditions in Southern California have been all the time as good as could be expected by the most sanguine. There is still as great activity in the building trade as ever; the extension of interurban electric railroads is still in progress; the "crop of tourists" this season has been the largest ever "harvested" here, and, candidly, that is, year in and year out, one of our most important crops. It is pleasant to think, too, that this is clearly a case of give and take. For if these good people from the East come in here and pay their good money liberally to hotels, boarding-houses and landlords, they are glad of the privilege, for they get the worth of their money in health and comfort-giving sunshine, in bright days free from frost, in the enjoyment of winter flowers and green fields replacing the glacial cold, the leafless trees, the blinding blizzards and all the discomforts of their own homes, not to speak of the extreme danger to their health, and even to their lives and those of their children.

POWDERLY'S RETURNING SENSE

If laboring men are organized for the sincere purpose of bettering their condition, that end will only be attained when they repudiate walking delegates, agitators and demagogue "leaders" and act on such advice as is given them by Terence V. Powderly, former president of the Knights of Labor.

Responding to the toast, "Reciprocity Between Employer and Employé," at the annual banquet of the Shoe and Leather Association of Chicago, Mr. Powderly declared that "of all the costly, cumbrous, wasteful, cruel methods of settling a difficulty in labor matters the strike and lockout are the worst. He declared that "the labor leader who has the interests of his men at heart will fight the strike to the last ditch." He emphasized the need for absolute candor and frankness in the relations between employer and employé, and strongly advised labor unions to incorporate. "The union has nothing to fear from incorporation," said Mr. Powderly, "and there is nothing the law can reach under incorporation that it cannot reach now."

Mr. Powderly has been intimately connected with and the head of one of the most important labor movements in this country. He knows the needs of the workingmen, and his opinions should carry great weight, for he is evidently a more sincere friend of the workingman than people of the Gompers-Jim Lynch-Teamster Lynch-Sam Parks-Pinhead McCarthy style. This is demonstrated by his opposition to the strike, which brings greatest injury to those who are least able to bear it.

In taking a stand for incorporation of labor unions, Mr. Powderly advocated that which will be for the best interests of laborers. Labor unions, as organizations for the promotion, along proper lines, of the welfare of their members, have nothing to fear from incorporation. Only the fire-eating "leaders," the lawless agitators and demagogues who lead honest men into dishonorable paths, need fear incorporation, which would enable the law to reach them, would destroy their power and influence, and thus eventually force them to work for a living instead of preying upon their fellow-men as they now do. Yet, curiously enough, John Mitchell still opposes incorporation.

Mr. Powderly boldly states that labor unions unincorporated can be reached by the hand of the law just as surely as incorporated unions could. This is correct doctrine, though as yet undetermined in this country, notwithstanding the legal punishments that have been given to certain lawless unions. It is coming to be generally believed that there exists and will be found some way by which unincorporated labor unions can be held responsible, wholly within the constitution, for their lawlessness, interference in restraint of trade, and their diversified attacks upon industry; and the incorporation of unions would finally dispel any existing doubt and place a direct and emphatic responsibility upon labor unions, making them answerable to the courts, all of which would serve to impress workingmen with the gravity of their responsibilities as individuals and as organizations. This would lead to greater caution, and a gradual diminution of the power and final overthrow of the demagogue "leaders" who now do so much harm to the workingmen and their cause.

No honest man need fear the law; and all honest laborers, whether members of a labor organization or working as individuals, should welcome incorporation as placing them on record in favor of law and order and as not afraid to be held responsible for their acts.

Mr. Powderly is eminently right in advocating absolute "candor and frankness in the relations between employer and employé." When organized labor repudiates its walking delegates and agitators, and by wise, discreet and reasonable methods seeks to better the condition of its members, then and not until then will employers meet it more than half way and cooperate toward the desired end. There is a responsibility resting upon employers as well as upon employés; and employers are ready and willing to meet that responsibility just as soon as organized labor places itself upon a rational, sound and trustworthy basis.

THEORY AND PRACTICE.

High-sounding theories count for nothing unless put into practice. To express splendid sentiments and then neglect to use one's influence to make them operative, is hypocrisy.

John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, now comes boldly forward in opposition to violence during strikes.

A few months ago Mitchell went to Colorado to stiffen the backbones of the striking miners. Mitchell knew the history of Colorado's labor troubles; he knew unionism's record for violence as the result of its strikes; yet he counseled the miners to strike, strike, strike, and keep on striking until they gained their point. He did not discuss the righteousness of that "point," but merely emphasized the necessity for gaining it.

David Harum said: "Make money honestly," and then added, significantly: "Make money."

Mitchell says: "Strike without violence," and then adds, significantly: "Strike."

Mitchell is nothing if not shrewd. He says that under no circumstances should a strike be allowed to degenerate into violence; that it were better a strike should be lost than that it should be won through violence.

He is obviously playing to the boxes. He knows that the gallery knows he doesn't mean what he says; but he is trying to make the people downstairs believe he is becoming honestly sane. He is trying to make an impression upon the conservative, law-abiding, sound-minded element of the country.

But he underestimates their intelligence. He reckons without his host if he thinks they will be blinded by any such grandiloquent pronouncements unaccompanied by deeds.

If Mitchell is sincere, why did he go to Colorado and encourage the strikers to continue striking, when he knew that the Western Federation of Miners had a record for violence, property destruction and bloodshed as infamous as anything in the dark history of unionism?

By that act he approved, applauded and encouraged violence. If Mitchell were not a narrow-minded pretender he would have seen that the first need of storm-swept Colorado and her working men is industrial peace.

He knew what losses the State and its miners were sustaining by reason of industrial turmoil; he knew full well what anarchistic counsels had led the miners to assault, murder and destruction of property; he knew there could be no change in the unhappy conditions there until peace had been restored and labor upheavals discontinued.

That was the time for Mitchell to use his influence to restore normal, healthful and peaceful conditions. It was not a time to counsel "Strike, strike, strike!"

We have no wish or intention to impugn any man's motives. We gladly and promptly recognize, welcome and applaud anyone's determination to turn from the path of error into the path of right. None stands more ready than does The Times to indorse and praise any emancipation of labor from the domination of demagogues and agitators, and its enlistment in the ranks of law and order, industrial freedom and individual liberty. But The Times will never condone hypocrisy in John Mitchell, or anyone else, no matter how carefully disguised or how shrewdly sugar-coated.

If John Mitchell is sincere, if he is not a hypocrite, if he is honestly opposed to strike violence, why did he not use his influence to put an end to industrial turmoil and strike violence in Colorado?

If he is all that his latest utterances would proclaim him to be, let him show to the world his sincerity by now, at once, honestly and uncompromisingly using his influence and power to restore lawful conditions in Colorado, to weed out the agitators and their followers who have plotted and carried into execution plots against life and property, and to purge the Western Federation of Miners of the rascals who have disgraced honest labor, who have brought incalculable injury to the State, and who have insulted the Stars and Stripes.

When John Mitchell has done this thing; when he has earned the right to be taken at his word; when he has shown his good faith by backing his utterances with deeds—then, and not until then, will he receive the commendation, the confidence and the support of all good citizens.

---

It is to be noted that Mr. Mitchell denounces violence during labor strikes chiefly upon the ground that it is inexpedient; that it is "short-sighted;" that it will injure the cause of the strikers by alienating public sympathy. He does not denounce violence because it is a violation of the law, nor because it is wrong, nor because it is an invasion of the rights of citizenship. He deprecates violence merely on the ground that it is bad policy for strikers to resort to it. This is an extremely narrow view, which may possibly appeal strongly to the unionist, but it will hardly appeal with equal force to the average citizen.

---

John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, in coming out in opposition to violence during labor strikes, demonstrates that no matter how insincere he may be in his position, he nevertheless recognizes a changed public sentiment toward unionism. Two years ago Mitchell would not have dared to utter such sentiments as he now expresses; but he realizes that unionism's violence, its assaults, arson, and even murder, have turned thousands of the former sympathizers with organized labor against it. Nor will the public accept Mitchell's words as sincere until he has not only cried out against violence, but has used his influence toward stopping it wherever and whenever it is found.

Reports of the results of the Far Eastern fighting are becoming provokingly inadequate. For instance, we have a dispatch conveying the simple but shocking statement that a Japanese shell had broken a rooster's leg, without a word of detail as to whether the fracture was of a serious nature or not, the rank of the injured rooster, his remarks upon being carried from the firing line, etc., etc.

FINISHING UP FOR CONFERENCE.

ACTIVE SPIRITS ARE GATHERING ON THE FIELD.

Claflin Colored Jubilee Singers Will Make First Appearance Tonight. New Pastor Installed Over Third Presbyterian Church—Congregational Association Next Week.

Prominent delegates to the Methodist General Conference are arriving on every train, but the rush days will be Monday and Tuesday. The "delegate special," however, bringing the big guns from New York and other points on the Atlantic seaboard, is scheduled to arrive on Sunday evening, and if there are no delays, perhaps one-fourth of the 748 delegates will have arrived before Monday morning.

Among those to come yesterday is Rev. Dr. J. P. Brushingham, who is accompanied by his wife. They have taken quarters at the Westminster. Dr. Brushingham is pastor of First Church, Chicago, a unique downtown institutional church, and he is one of the best known ministers of Chicago. He is foremost in every movement that tends to enable and enrich the great metropolis of the West.

Rev. Dr. Daniel Rader, pastor of First Church, Tacoma, is at the Broadway Van Nuys. He is called here several days early by his duties as editor of the Daily Christian Advocate. Dr. Rader is one of the most genial and successful pastors of the West. As a member of the Book Committee he became thoroughly posted in that department and widely acquainted with men and movements throughout the enitre church. Mr. Grose of Kansas City, business manager of the Advocate, is with Dr. Rader. They are greatly elated over the fact that there are 2000 more subscribers now reported than at the opening of the General Conference four years ago, which fact scores another good word for Los Angeles and the present management.

W. D. Bridge, chief of the official stenographers, has been very ill at the Broadway Hotel. He has served in this capacity for several conferences and is one of the most accurate clerks of any great assembly. All are anxious to have him in shape for his duties before May 4.

Dr. Harker of Jacksonville, Ill., is also on hand. He is president of the Illinois Woman's College, an honor not generally given by Methodists to laymen.

Methodists of the city today were wondering whether Secretary of the Treasury, Leslie M. Shaw, had his eye on the postoffice so much as on the General Conference. He is an ardent Methodist and has been a member of several general conferences. He was practically the lay leader four years ago at Chicago. Los Angeles may well rejoice over the presence of the General Conference if it will hasten the coming of Secretary Shaw and the providing of a suitable site and a $1,000,000 postoffice.

All day yesterday Dr. Spellmeyer, chairman of the commission, was at work with the Hotel Committee and the work of assignments is now far advanced. All delegates will be most admirably cared for.

At the pavilion the carpenters and plumbers have finished their work and the decorators have made most encouraging progress. Saturday night will find this building in excellent condition.

Rev. George A. Hough, executive secretary, has gone to San Francisco to attend the great missionary convention which opened yesterday, and to complete some preliminary arrangements with the bishops and other delegates before the arrival in Los Angeles.

Hugh Smith, chairman of the Reception Committee, reports a company of more than three hundred all ready and organized to give a hearty California welcome to the delegates and all visitors. Booths are being erected at both depots.

Thus all details are being methodically and carefully executed and a most successful finish of all preparations is assured.

COLORED SINGERS TONIGHT.

One of the great attractions at the General Conference will be the colored vocal quintette, of Claflin University, Orangeburg, S. C., said to be the finest corps of jubilee singers in the country. Their special mission to the conference is to represent their race, and by their singing boom the gifts for the Freedman's Aid Society. They will arrive in the city today and will make their first appearance at a missionary meeting in the First M. E. Church tonight. The meeting is under the auspices of the Epworth League of the First Church and is free to the public. Mrs. Buchwalter, missionary from China, will deliver an address. On Saturday evening the Claflin singers will sing in Akey's Hall, at Vernon and Central avenues, for the benefit of the building fund of the new Vernon M. E. Church.

PASTOR INSTALLED.

Rev. Samuel T. Montgomery was last night installed as pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church of this city, in the presence of, a large congregation.

Rev. Dr. A. B. Prichard, moderator of the Los Angeles presbytery, presided and conducted all the details of the ceremony. The sermon was preached by Rev. F. P. Berry of Highland Park; the charge to the pastor was delivered by Rev. A. G. Fessenden of this city, and the charge to the people by Rev. Thomas E. Stevenson of Inglewood.

BETHLEHEM INSTITUTIONS.

The annual meeting of the Los Angeles Congregational Association will be held in Bethlehem Institutional Church, commencing on Monday evening with the usual preliminary services and a sermon by Rev. George M. Morrison of Redondo. Three sessions will be held on Tuesday, and the ladies of the church, as a convenience to those who attend, will serve both dinner and supper. An excellent programme has been prepared for all the meetings.

Rev. Dana W. Bartlett, superintendent of the Bethlehem benevolences, announces that the baths will open for the season on Saturday morning and will remain open until 9 o'clock in the evening. In his announcement he says: "Tell the boys."

The new men's hotel is about ready for the roof, and everything has a flourishing look about Bethlehem, which is pleasing to the many people interested in the work being done there.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

The congregation of the Central Baptist Church, which some weeks ago purchased a lot for the erection of a new church at the corner of Alvarado and Pico streets, has just issued a request to architects to submit plans for the structure.

Francis Murphy will speak at the young men's meeting of the Y.M.C.A. in Temple Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. His subject will be "How to Succeed in Life," and the music will be by the association orchestra and vocal quartette.

This evening in the lecture-room at the temporary quarters of the Y.M.C.A. Dr. Earl B. Sweet of this city will deliver a lecture upon the subject of "First Things to Do in Case of Injury." The lecture will be illustrated with practical demonstrations.

HE WHO PAYS SHOULD BOSS.

Retail Butchers Eat Their Own Fresh Meat.

Great Business Success After the Union Defeat.

Packers, as Special Guests, Add Congratulations.

The Retail Butchers' Board of Trade, to the number of 100, sat down to a banquet at Levy's last night and then enjoyed themselves like the jolly good fellows they are.

President Tom Coleman presided and appropriately welcomed the following special guests of the organization: Simon Maier of the Maier Packing Company; Ed Conet of the Sentous Packing Company; R. Scott of the Cudahy Packing Company, O. L. Galbreth of Swift & Co., M. Meller of Armour & Co. Each of the guests made a brief and pleasant response to the chairman and gave expression to the idea that the interests of the retailer and the packer are identical. L. V. Glasscock neatly filled the place of toastmaster.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by M. W. Everhardy, of the Executive Committee of the retailers, in which he took occasion to felicitate them upon the marked success of their efforts to counteract the baleful influence of the union jawsmiths and walking delegates, though the speaker used no such harsh terms in making reference to the conquered unionists.

Mr. Everhardy suggested at the opening of his talk that a man once a butcher is always a butcher. He said he supposed that is because they never make enough money to get out of the business. Not satisfied with a joke like that, he said if he butchered the ideas in his speech it was because he had always been a butcher. Mr. Everhardy, however, made a speech in which the ideas were clear-cut, as the following extracts will show:

"About one year ago, we were confronted as individuals with what seemed to be insurmountable obstacles, under the conditions then existing. It looked as though the only solution to our difficulties was either to surrender our manhood and independence or go out of business. We decided to do neither. We met organization with organization, and in the face of the most overwhelming discouragements, we stood firmly for principle, for justice, and for what we believed to be right. The result has been that we have succeeded beyond our most sanguine hopes.

"I think it would be well to state here and now that neither as individuals nor as an association, are we opposed to organizations so long as they do not abuse their power. We believe that men have a right to organize for protection of their interests, their families and their property. We believe that society is made better thereby, but we also believe in those everlasting rights secured us by the Constitution of our country; not only the liberty of life, but also liberty to pursue your vocations; liberty to handle your property in the way that seems best for the success of your business interests, so long as you do not encroach upon the rights or properties of others. In other words, we believe that the man who pays the bills should boss the job.

"It is the right of every man to refuse to work or dictate the terms upon which he will work, but it is not his right to prevent another from working, nor to dictate the terms upon which another must work.

"I wish to again congratulate those here assembled upon their steadfast adherence to principles of independence and manhood, and to repeat that it would have been impossible to achieve the splendid position which our association enjoys today, had it not been for the earnest cooperation of the individual members, combined with the utmost and unqualified support of the backers.

"The outlook for our organization could not be more flattering. I can say that in my seventeen years' experience in the retail meat business in this city, I have never seen it in a more flourishing condition than it is today, much of which I attribute to the work of our organization. Let it be the endeavor of each and every one of us to strengthen and solidify the bonds of interest that unite us. Let it be our aim to encourage and promote the most friendly and beneficial relations between ourselves and those with whom we come in contact, whether as employés or as patrons."

Brief talks were made by the following-named: C. F. Huddelston, John Steiner and Clinton Veale, all of Pasadena, who were also among the guests; A. C. Winters, Julius Hauser, S. D. Fiscus, George Sleicher, E. E. Bake, C. C. Ehrenhart, J. Vickers, J. J. Young, Adolph Burkhardt, F. F. Wilson, A. Fauersanger and others.

CORPORATE LAW THE SUBJECT.

CREDIT MEN DINE, LISTEN AND DISCUSS QUESTION.

May Establish Here Fund and Bureau for Prosecution of Fraudulent Debtors — Attorney Reads Paper on Liability of Corporations, Their Officers and Stockholders.

The discussion of the proposal to establish here a fund and bureau for the prosecution of fraudulent debtors and the hearing of a paper delivered by Attorney Lloyd W. Moultrie on "The Liability of Corporations, Their Officers and Stockholders," occupied the programme following the monthly dinner of the Los Angeles Credit Men's Association at the Del Monte last night.

Thirty-six sat down to dinner, presided over by President Frank Simpson. Those present were A. S. Moise, visiting adjuster of the Credit Indemni Company; W. E. Marcher, C. E. Morris, George Arnott, J. J. Bergin, J. Jepsen, W. E. Baxter, Dr. Hedderly, Dr. Goodwin, W. F. Bosbyshell, B. C. Bosbyshell, E. P. Bosbyshell, H. M. Eickelberger, C. Kuagenheim, C. F. Winters, W. C. Kennedy, J. D. Simpson, Don Harrison, H. Fay Butler, T. H. Lewis, K. O. Sale, J. L. Merrill, W. A. Phelps, F. R. Hunter, N. Mathews, T. Kanouse, G. E. Boyle, J. L. Boyle, J. A. Talbot, L. Kimble, B. H. Dennis, C. S. Lamb, H. Flatin, L. L. Baird, L. W. Moultrie, Frank Simpson, W. C. Mushet.

A period of interested discussion followed the address of Mr. Moultrie, who said in part: "The law relating to corporations has advanced more rapidly in the past fifty years than it has in all its other branches, for the vast enterprises which could never have been accomplished by individuals or partnerships, are now successfully carried on in all parts of the country by capital combined in corporations; and Justice Field is authority for the statement, in his oration delivered at the centennial celebration of the Supreme Court of the United States in New York in 1890, that four-fifths of the wealth of the coutnry is held by corporations.

"The earliest, best and most used definition of a corporation is that given by Chief Justice Marshall of the United States Supreme Court in the famous Dartmouth College case, decided in 1817, where he describes it as 'an artificial being, invisible, intangible and existing only in cotemplation of the law.' While that is the legal effect, it is also a fact that a corporation is really an association formed by the agreement of its members or stockholders, and the existence of the corporation as an entity independent of its members is a fiction, and the rights and duties of the corporation are in reality the rights and duties of the members composing it, their strict legal liabilities, however, being only such as law imposes.

"There is a radical, though not generally understood difference between public and private corporations; but, as a matter of fact, the former are not voluntary associations at all; they are merely government institutions created by law for the administration of public affairs of the community. In California, all corporations are private, no matter how much benefit the public derives from them, or how public is the nature of their business."

TEPLITZ AMPHORA ART POTTERY for WEDDING and ANNIVERSARY GIFTS

A new conception of European Artist that is receiving much recognition from pottery lovers. The shapes are extremely odd and artistic. The coloring which is of deep Golden Bronze is a beautiful contrast to the deep purple grapes hanging in bold relief. It is exceptionally attractive and selling readily. It is well worth the trouble of a visit to see, some unusally fine specimens can be had from $4.00 to $10.00 each.

VARY YOUR ROUTE.

IF you came West over a northern route, you should return via a southern route.

In like manner, if you made the trip to California over a southern route, the thing to do is to go East over a northern route.

By doing this you will see just twice as much as if you used the same line in both directions.

Look into this matter of return routes and you will find that the Rock Island System forms a part of the best northern as well as the best southern trans-continental line.

Northern Route is by way of Ogden, Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs and Denver.

Southern Route is via El Paso.

Through car service both ways. Particulars are given in our folders, at all Southern Pacific ticket offices.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Accountants' Examinations.

The State Board of Accountancy will conduct an examination at its office, No. 303 California street, San Francisco, June 6. Candidates may file applications with the secretary before May 20.

Hotel Guests Entertained.

Mrs. W. Nettleship entertained fifty guests at Hotel Westwood, No. 545 South Flower street, last night. A feature of the evening was a lecture on "Sense and Nonsense," by Prof. L. M. Walters of Fresno.

As a National Delegate.

At the biennial convention of the Knights and Ladies of Security of California, held in this city Wednesday, Mrs. Mary A. Meny of Los Angeles was elected State delegate to the national convention to be held in St. Louis next June.

Turbine Generators Working.

The Edison Electric Company's 2000-kilowatt generating plant in East Los Angeles has been completed. All of the "load" locally connected was carried by that plant for several hours Wednesday. The turbine is of a type new to this part of the country.

Borak's Lid Lifting.

Al Borak Temple, No. 75, D.O.K.K., is to have a lid-lifting session tomorrow night. It is announced that several anxious tyros are impatiently waiting outside the temple's gates for admission. Whether the elevation of the cover will disclose a novitiate in a stew or a prophet in pickle is not stated.

Whittier Girl Wins.

Alma Swain, a Whittier girl, won the W.C.T.U. gold medal contest last night at the W.C.T.U. Temple. Her subject was "College Oil Cans." There were several contestants. Mrs. Katharine Wheat presented each one with a book or some other souvenir of the occasion. Miss Swain got the gold medal, of course.

More Carriers Wanted.

United States Civil Service examinations for the positions of clerk and carrier in the Los Angeles postoffice will be held May 7 at 9 a.m. Persons desiring to compete should apply to the secretary of the local board of civil-service examiners, at the postoffice, at once. Applications will be received up to the time of opening the examinations.

Back to China.

Weng Gin, a Chinese lad about 16 years old, who has papers showing him to be the son of a Chinese merchant in Walla Walla, Wash., came over from China several weeks ago and landed at Port Los Angeles. He took up the trade of laundryman in this city instead of proceeding northward to his parents, and was nabbed in his working clothes by the Chinese inspector and charged with being illegally in the United States. As he could not show legal entry to the country, he was yesterday ordered deported by United States Commissioner Van Dyke.

Woodsman Arrested.

Sam Black was yesterday arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Traeger in the mountains eight miles back of Beaumont in pursuance of a complaint sworn to by Forest Supervisor Everett B. Thomas, charging Black with cutting wood illegally on the San Gabriel forest reserve. He was released until May 20, after having been brought here, on the promise of his lawyer that he will appear before the commissioner on that date for examination.

Letter Carriers' Fourth.

The letter carriers are planning a Fourth of July celebration and picnic to be held at Verdugo Park. The committee in charge will provide a programme distinctly patriotic in all its features, including reading of the Declaration of Independence, singing of national songs and an oration by a local speaker of repute. Athletic contests will follow concluding with a match game of baseball between carriers and clerks in the local office. No intoxicating liquors will be allowed on the grounds.

Injured by a Car.

George T. Fant, an employé of the Los Angeles Lighting Company, was severely hurt by being struck by a street car yesterday morning. Fant was working in a trench between the car tracks at Twenty-fourth street and Vermont avenue, when a car approached from each direction. In trying to get out of the way of one of them he was struck by the other. He was dragged several feet before the car was stopped. The injured man was carried to the residence of Dr. A. F. Speicher, No. 3024 Vermont avenue, where an examination showed that he had several ribs fractured and was badly bruised about the hips and head. After his wounds were dressed by Dr. Speicher, he was sent to his home on Boyle Heights in an ambulance.

WORM TURNS ON MELVILL.

Arrested as Embezzler, After Long Shielded.

Prominent Figure Charged With a Felony.

Business Man and Politician Thousands Shy.

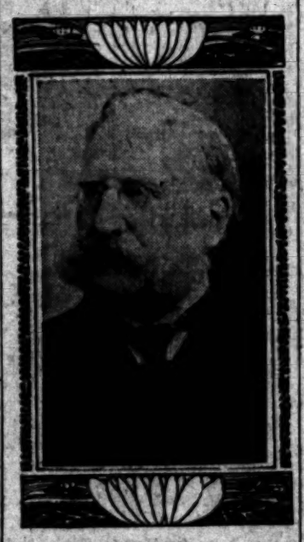
J. H. Melvill, a prominent figure in the Los Angeles business world and a Democratic politician of note was arrested as an embezzler yesterday.

His friends have been shielding him and keeping his alleged crimes a secret. They turned their backs on him yesterday—stung by his ingratitude.

He was taken by the police and arraigned before Justice Pierce; gave bail and was released.



J. H. MELVILL.

The crime with which he is charged is taking $600. It is claimed his peculations really amount to thousands; that he has stolen bonds from the safe, passed fictitious checks, cheated veterans, and had to face avengers armed with loaded revolvers seeking to revenge themselves for stolen money.

Melvill was secretary of the Fidelity Abstract Company, and accumulated this record there.

His friends have already made good his defalcations to the amount of $7000. When he was thrown out of the institution, he left it in debt about $16,000.

No one knows what he did with the money.

He would never have had to pay the penalty for his alleged crimes but that he turned on his friends who saved him and accused them of buncoing him out of his position, they having forced him to resign from the abstract company.

PROMINENT VICTIMS.

Melvill's chief victims are not the old man, James E. Sweet, from whom he got his stolen $600, but several prominent business men who have had to make his peculations good, men such as W. T. Craig, attorney for the Board of Trade; William Mead, president of the Central Bank; George H. Peck, the San Pedro banker; W. J. Williams of the Fraternal Brotherhood.

Melvill got up the Fidelity Abstract Company here, and asked these men to lend their names to it, which they did out of friendship, Melvill having been associated politically with some of them when he was secretary of the Democratic Central Committee.

Although having no financial interest in the concern, Craig was made president; Williams, vice-president; Mead, cashier, and Peck, treasurer.

Last July they began to suspect something was wrong with the company. They had no part in the affairs before because the whole concern was practically owned by Melvill, and it was his business.

SOMETHING WRONG.

In July they found a false entry in the cash book. They looked with sudden interest and found something wrong with the funds that had been left in escrow by innocent persons. There should have been funds in escrow amounting to over $8000. They feared they were lending their names to crooked dealing.

They asked Melvill about it, and he stormed; said they had no confidence in him, and it was the mistake of the bank's booking—not his sin. He said the bank books would show that the abstract company had on deposit there the $8500, which had been left in escrow, and which was gone.

A committe was formed to investigate, and Melville gave them a letter to the bank with authority to look into his accounts.

They found the right amount there, just as he said.

In two days they went back again and found the account had shrunk to $50.

They forced Melville to give them another letter to the bank, and found he had made up the shortage by depositing two fictitious checks on the Azusa Valley Bank and a Long Beach bank for the exact amount the cash book was falsified.

The next day the bank returned the checks with the "No such account" stamp. By that time Melvill thought his troubles with the Auditing Committee were over, and, as he thought, did not need the fictitious checks any more.

ADMITS SHORTAGE.

He threw up his hands and admitted to the directors that he was in a hole. He claimed that he had used all the money he had misappropriated on the plant of the company.

The gentlemen named above made good the loss to the people who had left their money in escrow. Melvill was forced to resign as secretary, but, to prevent a scandal, he was allowed to remain in the company's employ as assistant manager with power to do nothing but sign certificates of title.

A Mr. Roby was made manager in his place. When Roby opened the safe for the first time, he found that $1000 of the company's bonds had been stolen.

Melvill was accused and finally admitted he had taken the bonds to a money lender and borrowed $250, leaving them as security, he to pay 5 per cent. a month for the $250.

He promised to make good the loss. Two or three weeks went by and he did not make good. They began to press him. The money lender told the directors Melvill had returned his money and had got back the bonds.

Then where were the bonds.

A clerk finally found an entry in one of the books which showed that $1000 (no one but Melvill ever saw) had been received by the company from one Happe for investment. A cross entry showed that $1000 worth of bonds had been sold to him.

MAN WITH A GUN.

It turned out that Happe was an old soldier. Melvill had taken his money and falsely signed himself as secretary.

One of the clerks told the investigating committee the old man came to the office one day with a loaded pistol and was going to kill Melvill; that Melvill, to pacify him, gave him the $1000 bonds he had got back from the money lender.

When chided with this, Melvill claimed he had turned the money into the plant.

This was his end, however. They turned him out of the company, making him turn over all his stock.

The directors ran the concern themselves some time, until they found reliable purchasers. Last February the company changed hands and the directors managed to recoup themselves to some extent for the money they had been obliged to pay out to cover Melvill's wrongdoings.

After he had left the company, the finest embezzlement was discovered. Mr. Sweet went to the office and asked for an accounting of $600 the company had taken to invest for him. He produced a receipt signed (wrongfully) by Melvill, acknowledging the receipt of the money, and guaranteeing him 5 per cent. on the investment.

FORGERY DISCOVERED.

At the bank it was discovered Melvill had forged two indorsements and pocketed the money.

The directors made this good without a murmur and intended saying nothing about it.

Melvill opened an abstract office of his own in the Temple Block and they let him go until he began circulating stories reflecting on the men who had thus befriended him time and time again instead of having taken action to send him to the penitentiary.

The Fidelity Abstract Co., it is but fair to say, is now in the hands of men who are strictly reliable, and all the old debts have been long since wiped out.

MELVILL'S SIDE.

Mr. Melvill has retained an attorney for his defense. It is claimed in his behalf that he has not been guilty, but merely put in an unfortunate light by force of circumstances. When the time comes, his attorneys claim that he will have a complete defense. Melvill claims that all these sums mentioned were turned into the plant. The forgery, it is claimed, was but a technical forgery, the rubber stamp of the company being placed on the back of the check and Melvill signing his name as secretary, when, as a matter of fact, his term in that office had come to an end.

Melvill's attorney, R. J. Adcock, said last night:

"If Melvill ever did anything out of the way, it was merely an indiscretion. He is incapable of forgery and these other things. This prosecution is actuated by malice. That company always ran at a loss and he had to use his own money to put in it. He lost personally over $2000. All he ever got out of it was board and clothes, and he has nothing to show for it. I do not know all the details, but this is unquestionably a rank injustice to Mr. Melvill."

PLANS FINEST EATING PLACE.

CAFE FOR WHOLE BASEMENT OF HELLMAN BUILDING.

Reported that Twenty Thousand Dollars is to be Expended by Schneider in Fitting and Furnishing Place More Elaborate than Zinkand's of San Francisco.

Los Angeles is soon to have one of the most handsomely-appointed restaurants or cafés on the Pacific Coast. The plans are about to mature. This enterprise is to occupy the whole basement of the new Hellman building at the northeast corner of Fourth and Spring streets, and William Schneider of the Palace Café is to be the proprietor.

This is the interesting information current among the compatriots of the local Bohemia, and there are various details under discussion. It is said fully $20,000 is to be expended in the fittings and furnishings of the new café, and that it will be one of the show places of this city. Another report says the place is to be modeled on the plans of the famous Zinkand restaurant of San Francisco, but with much more elaborate furnishings.

The location is very desirable, being in the center of the tourist hotel belt and of easy access from all of the theaters. Broad entrances will be provided from the Spring-street and the Fourth-street sides.

Early in the coming week the final details of the new enterprise will be decided.

INTER-COLLEGIATE DEBATE.

This evening at 8 o'clock, in Simpson Auditorium will be a debate between the University of Southern California and the University of the Pacific. This will be the first time that these two California Methodist colleges have met on the rostrum. Hitherto U.S.C. has confined her triumphs to the south and has made for herself an enviable record, having won seven out of twelve of the intercollegiate oratorical contests between U. S.C., Occidental and Pomona. Prospects point to eight out of thirteen for this year. U.S.C. has won all of the three intercollegiate debates with Pomona College. The issue to be debated tonight is: "Resolved, that the partition of China would prove beneficial to the Chinese people." Harold S. Tuttle and Miss Maud E. Banks of the University of the Pacific will uphold the affirmative, and Charles H. Scott and Delbert Brunton of U.S.C. the negative. The U.S.C. Glee Club will occupy a place on the programme.

THE SAY OF THE WOMEN.

Gloveless Speeches at the Pomona Parliament.

Mrs. Bath Makes Her First Public Address.

Miss Carver's Letter Reading Causes Sensation.

Pauperism, civic reform and "The Economic Relation Between Husband and Wife" were objects of gloveless treatment at the twenty-seventh session of the Woman's Parliament of Southern California, which opened yesterday at Pomona.

The people of the valley city had been looking forward to the gathering with a pride and delight which was evinced by the festal aspect of the town and the cordial reception of delegates and other visitors following their arrival.

DONE BY FLOWER MISSION.

The Methodist Church, where the parliament was held, presented a handsome view, with its luxuriant dress of living green lightened with many varieties of spring beauty and bloom. Great sheath-like date palms were employed strikingly and about the choir rail was a dado of the glossy leaves of the magnolia with a central line of brilliant sweet peas. Smilax in graceful festoons, jars of pink and white roses and Marie Antoinette baskets of the same regal flowers outlined the altar rail. The decorations were the work of the industrious young ladies of the Fruit and Flower Mission of Pomona.

MRS. JEFFERSON GIBBS,
President Southern California Woman's Parliament.

Although all the delegates had not arrived, the parliament was opened promptly at 10 o'clock. An invocation was offered by Rev. J. S. Carrol of Pomona, followed by an address of welcome from Mrs. Edgar German, president of the Ebell Club of that city.

The president, Mrs. Gibbs, responded most eloquently, comparing Pomona to the beloved goddess of ancient Rome, worshiped for her munificent gifts to men.

"The sacred grove," said Mrs. Gibbs, "dedicated to the worship of ancient Pomona was not more fair than these fertile fields and fruitful valleys of California. The welcome which you have given us is breathed out from every nodding rosebud and will remain as one of the cherished memories of the Woman's Parliament, biggest, broadest and best of organizations, which under the guidance of its illustrious founder has been such an important factor in the social and intellectual development of Southern California."

The president's address was followed by a piano solo by Mrs. F. W. Wire, and the reports of officers and delegates departed from the usual cut-and-dried form and were presented with a crispness that was lioted as refreshing.

"Really it's like a love feast and experience meeting all in one and so many clever things said from a lot of dry figures," said one enthusiastic delegate.

Mrs. Melville Dozier, Jr., secretary, read the report of the last secretary of the parliament, and Miss Anna M. Davis submitted the treasurer's report.

Mrs. W. J. Washburn of Los Angeles, who was the main speaker for the morning session, dwelt on what she described as a great civic awakening sweeping the country from Plymouth Rock to the Golden Gate.

"The last decade has seen nearly all this work of civic pride and civic reform," she said, and made a strong point of including in civic betterment the improved chances for the development of children.

Mrs. W. W. Murphy, former president of the parliament, said that the hope of the world lies in the children and advised inculcating civic pride in the public schools. Mrs. Lucy S. Blanchard, vice-president at large of the parliament, Mrs. Florence Collins Porter and others took part in the ensuing discussion. At the conclusion of the morning session luncheon was served at the banqueting rooms of the Fraternal Aid Hall.

The afternoon gathering was inspiring and even the gallery of the church was crowded with interested auditors. Many pretty girls of Pomona acted as ushers and pages. There was a reading by Mrs. Emil P. Steffa, after which the parliament plunged into the discussion of charities, taking up many phases of the subject bearing upon practical everyday problems.

Mrs. Hannah Graves Bath of Los Angeles, for more than thirty years an active benevolent worker in Los Angeles, read a paper on "Duplication of Charities a Menace." Although the speaker's beautiful snowy hair attested her years, it was her first appearance as a public speaker. She is strongly opposed to the system of charities as it exists at present, and thinks that it is building the foundation for a race of paupers.

"Fewer institutions and a strong and determined effort to enable people to assume their own responsibilities instead of shifting them to a sympathetic public was greatly to be desired," she declared.

The statements of Mrs. Bath were sustained by Miss Leonide Ducommun of Los Angeles and Miss C. C. Carver, secretary of the Associated Charities of Los Angeles.

GRAFTING SENSATION.

Miss Carver caused a sensation by reading some letters between professional grafters which had come into her hands in regard to working the towns of Southern California. Nearly all these towns were described as good fields and the actual sums realized in several of these towns were stated. Promiscuous giving was shown to encourage pauperism and crime and the necessity for investigation of every case by some body such as the Associated Charities was recognized as imperative.

Mrs. Blanchard brought forward the painful subject of street beggars and the majority of them, according to these ladies who have made it their business to know, have bank accounts exceeding the worldly wealth of those upon whom they prey.

"The Economic Relation Between Husband and Wife" was the subject of an address by Mrs. Andrew Stewart Lobengier. The discussion which followed was led by Calvin W. Smith of Los Angeles and threatened to continue indefinitely, but was stopped to allow Mme. De Blumenthal to speak on the work of her beloved and poverty-stricken countrywomen, the peasant women of Russia who made the handsome laces displayed at the reception which followed the close of the afternoon session.

MORE HOSPITALITY.

This reception was held at the Fraternal Aid Hall. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Edgar German, Mrs. Frank D. Green and Mrs. Sarah B. Minier. Mrs. W. H. Poston was chairman of the Hospitality Committee; Mrs. Charles F. Schwan of the local Arrangements Committee; Mrs. J. E. Patterson of the Trains Committee; Mrs. E. R. Threlkeld of the Credentials Committee; Mrs. A. D. Hunter of the Music Committee; Miss Jessie Burleson of the ushers, and Miss Helen Martin of the pages.

Among the features arranged for the evening session were an address by Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, a duo of organ and piano by Mrs. Elizabeth Lee and Mrs. W. Z. Lee, a speech by Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, a vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Widener, an address on "The Woman of Today" by Mrs. Benjamin Fay Mills, a speech by Mrs. E. O. Smith of San Jose and a violin solo by Jaime Overton.

Among the numbers in today's programme are:

Morning—"General Federation of Woman's Clubs," Mrs. Robert J. Burdette; "California Congress of Mothers and Federation of Child Study Circles," Mrs. W. W. Murphy; "Woman's Christian Temperance Union," Mrs. Emma Cash; "Los Angeles District Federation of Woman's Clubs," Mrs. F. E. Prior; "Women's Relief Corps," Mrs. Lizzie Belle Cross; piano duet, Miss Martha M. Pontius and Stella M. Ford; "The Legal Status of Woman," Mrs. Josephine Moody Luthe, Denver, Colo.; discussion, Miss Elizabeth Kenny; "The Simple Life in Clubs," Mrs. Emma M. Greenleaf; discussion, Mrs. George Baker; reading, Miss Adelaide Demmon.

Afternoon—"Womanhood in Art," Miss Spalding; vocal quartette, Mmes. C. E. Hibbs, F. K. Adams, Charles Clark, Miss Maria F. Eells; "Changes in Customs," Mrs. Daniel Shepard, discussion, Miss Kate M. Lemberger, soprano solo, Mrs. C. E. Hibbs; "The Unread Manuscript," Mrs. Elizabeth A. Lawrence; discussion, Mrs. Lizzie H. Mills.

TOOK THE CASH.

It is now said by Mrs. Pemberton that her husband, Pearl C. Pemberton, who deserted her a week ago, leaving her to take care of three small children, took with him the remnants of $1200 which had been put in his hands by his wife, leaving her absolutely destitute. Nothing has been heard from the recreant husband and his wife will take her children and go to her home in Whittier.

AUCTIONS HERE ARE LIKELY.

COMPANY FORMING TO SELL ORANGES AT HOME.

Sales Quarters May be Colton or San Bernardino—No Effort to be Made to Put Scheme in Operation Before Next Season—Methods in Outline.

A company organized for the purpose of selling citrus fruits at auction in Southern California is to be incorporated within a few days.

The plan contemplates the establishment of auction headquarters at perhaps Colton or San Bernardino. As proposed, the fruit packed on the previous day and shipped in carload lots from the various orange-growing centers of Southern California may be hauled in the night to the auction place so as to be ready for inspection by buyers next morning.

The selling process, it is said, need occupy but a short time, so that by noon the cars of fruit may be moving eastward billed to their respective destinations. By that plan the various eastern fruit dealers would have representatives at the auction place to do the buying.

"A company is being organized," said Edmund Peycke of Edmund Peycke & Co. yesterday, "by Southern California people, consisting of growers, shippers and capitalists with a view to offering facilities to all packers, associations and individuals to dispose of their fruit for cash at home. The auction company will be open to all sellers and all buyers, and will be independent of all factions.

"No attempt will be made to handle any fruit before the opening of next season, as a large amount of work has to be done before so important an enterprise can be properly started. All plans have been carefully worked out, and extensive correspondence with eastern buyers shows their sympathy with this movement. It largely rests with the growers now whether or not they will accept the cash value of fruit at home or continue present fethods."

The new concern is to be known as the Home Auction Company.

PEACH OF RIDE WAS ANNA'S.

BLONDE WHIRLWIND MAKES THE WHITE ANGELS DIZZY.

Shy Maidens go Chug-Chugging Just to Escape the Curious Glances of the Horrid Brute Man, Don't You Know—Riotous Loveliness Intoxicates the Desert Cacti.

If your pet dog was run over by a flying stampede of automobiles yesterday, skin the dog and have him stuffed as a precious memento.

In the auto cars were Anna Held and her honey bunch of show girls out chug-chug riding.

Such riotous loveliness was upon the desert air that the white angels sweeping the streets grew dizzy with intoxication.

Last night, the golden sun went down in a halo of glory caused by the reflection of his dying beams on a haze of floating face powder, eyebrow pencilings that had slipped the moorings in flight, not to mention the entrancing dust from ravishing blondness.

Business men of staid respectability watched from the windows until they felt forced to tear themselves away, but, leaving, whispered fiercely to the typewriter girls, "Call me next time a blonde comes by."

They started from the theater early in the afternoon in a whole string of gorgeous touring cars. It was Anna's treat. And Anna's press agent, who don't care who knows, paid the bills.

It is a fair guess, however, that it was the most beautiful automobile parade that ever happened, for the girls of this show have been gathered from the ends of creation for "lookers."

Crowds watched the start and eagerly cast eyes at the girls, afterward as they flew by like the wind, beautiful creatures with their hair streaming all over their faces and flushed with the race.

As an advertising scheme it was worthy of Ziegfeld, who is the prize number after Tody Hamilton.

This is the second time he has worked clever advertising dodges on Los Angeles. When he was out here before, he bought a baby ostrich at the ostrich farm. All the papers, far and wide then printed his great yarn about Miss Held's having been given a baby ostrich from an ardent admirer whom she was loath to offend. But dear, dear, what could she do with it?

The same man who got up this ride is the one who first burst Miss Held into fame by arranging a scientific experiment to see how many times a girl could be kissed without falling into nervous collapse. Miss Held established a long-distance record which has not been equaled since.

The famous milk-bath dodge he brought about with devilish ingenuity. One day a suit was brought against Miss Held for an enormous quantity of milk—thousands of gallons. No explanations were offered, and the papers went wild with curiosity. It was finally conceded with great reluctance(?) that she bathed in milk.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Local contractors are trying to organize a syndicate to build the outfall sewer.

The Forrester syndicate yesterday delivered its first carload of brick to be used in the construction of the storm sewers.

The Finance Committee yesterday passed a resolution declining to recommend payment of bills for supplies not ordered through the medium of the new purchasing system.

In the Police Court Inspector Hughes filed a complaint against B. Burge for selling pork infected with tuberculosis.

The police closed up a blind pig and the offender was fined $100 by Justice Austin.

Mrs. Rebecca Moore is suing Will D. Gould and others on two notes given many years ago under unusual circumstances.

Attorney Hinckley was yesterday discharged by Justice Young. It was found the embezzlement charge would not lie.

Henry Christie, the second of the Masterson-Taylor-Christie syndicate of real estate manipulators, was held to answer, and this morning he will have his bail bond fixed.

AT THE CITY HALL.

LOCAL SYNDICATE TO BUILD SEWER.

CONTRACTORS WILL LOOK OVER RIGHT-OF-WAY TODAY.

Bids Will be Made With a View of Keeping Out Outside Contractors—New Bond Issue May be Necessary for Construction of Internal Sewers.

Charles Stansbury, Martin Marsh, Carl Leonardt and other local contractors will today make a trip along the line of the new outfall sewer for the purpose of getting a composite view of the right of way and a mutual understanding of the difficulties of construction.

One object of this trip is said to be the formation of a local corporation to build the entire sewer. This will be the largest single piece of construction ever attempted here. The contractors are said to be making the effort at combining their resources for the purpose of preventing the contract going to some northern or eastern concern. Estimates made by engineers employed by the city place the cost of construction alone at $670,000.

The work will be done in six sections. No. 3, which will be the most expensive, consists of a tunnel more than two miles long. The estimated cost of that section is not far from $250,000.

Local bidders will not secure the contract without meeting and overcoming sharp competition. City Engineer Stafford took a Denver contractor over the line Tuesday. Wednesday he made the same trip with a representative of a San Francisco firm. Mr. Stafford said yesterday that he had received inquiries about the work from contracting firms in Galveston, Tex.; Madison, Wis.; Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Denver and San Francisco. Representatives of some of these firms are already on the ground and others are on the way here.

Bids will be opened May 16. Mr. Stafford expects to devote the greater portion of his time during the next two weeks to showing prospective bidders the route the sewer will take and explaining to them the details of the construction.

The $600,000 estimate for construction does not include the brick and cement to be used. Contracts for these materials have already been let. It is estimated that they will cost at least $300,000.

At the time the bonds were voted the $1,000,000 issue was expected to provide not only for the construction of the outfall sewer from the city to the ocean, but for a system of internal sewers where the mains to be laid would be so large and the work so expensive that it would be unfair to assess the whole cost against the adjacent owners. The original estimate of the cost of the outfall sewer, proper, was but $670,000. This allowed $330,000 for the internal system. Increase in the cost of material and labor will necessitate the expenditure of the greater portion of this money on the outfall sewer alone.

It is now thought probable that after the outfall sewer is well under way the electors of the city will be asked to vote an extra bond issue of at least $300,000 to provide for the construction of internal sewers. This will depend, however, on the size of the bids submitted next month.

Added interest is lent to the competition which is now on between local and outside contractors, by reason that a number of dark horses are already in the field. Mr. Stafford has taken three men over the route of the sewer who have not revealed from whence they came or in whose interest they are making the inspection. One of these paid particular attention to section three, where the major portion of the money will be expended. He has been taking specimens of soil and rock all along the route of the tunnel, and the rumor has gained credence that he is a representative of a New York contracting firm that constructed part of the tunnel under East River.

Several smaller contractors have been making a careful inspection of sections of the sewer, with the view of bidding for a single piece of the construction work. The contract price for the cheapest of these sections will be at least $75,000.

FORRESTER BRICK.

FIRST CARLOAD DELIVERED.

The first carload of brick supplied under the Forrester contract for furnishing brick for the outfall sewer and storm drains, was yesterday delivered to the contractors who are constructing the storm sewer on South Hill street. The brick came from the Huntington yards at Inglewood. City Engineer Stafford said that, while they stood the tests prescribed by the specification of the contract, they did not have as smooth a surface as he would expect of future deliveries.

Representatives of the rival brick companies turned out to inspect the first brick delivered. Some of them did not believe that the brick would not absorb more than 8 per cent. of water, one of the requirements of the contract, and they carried away samples to make private tests.

City Engineer Stafford said the managers of the Forrester syndicate were loth to deliver brick from the burning from which these were selected, and that they offered to pay the difference if he would buy brick for the Hill-street sewer in the open market. He tested brick made by other companies with this purpose in view, but the Forrester brick stood a better test than any of the others. The City Engineer is of the opinion that when the new machinery installed by the Forrester syndicate gets to working smoothly, it will turn out an unusually high quality of brick.

Trees Are Safe.

A pumping plant which is to supply the trees on the Elysian Park hills with moisture until their roots have reached a sufficient depth to make them self-supporting, has just been completed by the park department, at an expense of about $5000. Two months ago Park Superintendent Legrande reported to the Park Commissioners that, unless some method of irrigation was devised for the protection of over 1500 young trees and shrubs in Elysian Park, they would not be able to withstand the long summer drought. In addition to the new pumping plant a water main has been laid from Chaves Ravine to Fremont gate.

Must be Regular.

No more requisitions for supplies will be recommended by the Finance Committee of the City Council, unless they are made out on the regular triplicate blanks used under the new purchasing system. This system provides that the price of all articles must be established by competitive bidding. Under the old system a dealer supplied the article called for and named his own price. Several of these requisitions yesterday found their way into the Finance Committee's budget. All but two of the requisitions were allowed, but the committee agreed that in the future no requisition for supplies purchased since April 1 would be allowed unless made out in the regular form.

Must Make Affidavit.

A conference between Superintendent Foshay of the city schools and Health Officer Powers has resulted in the promulgation of an order to principals of schools not to accept parents' certificates of vaccination unless they have been sworn to before a notary public. Necessity for this precaution is said to be occasioned by the discovery that, in many instances, parents sign these certifications of vaccination rather than take their children to be vaccinated, with the result that the children become a menace to the health of their schoolmates.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

TO COLLEGE ON A MORTGAGE.

HOW SAM PETERSON WAS ABLE TO GRADUATE FROM YALE.

Mrs. Moore Sues on Time-worn Notes, and It's up to Lawyer Gould to Answer for Trying to Help His Law Clerk to Education—Daily Grind of the Courts.

The story of how Sam Peterson went to college and got a number of persons into a legal tangle that has been enwrapping them for years is told before Judge Oster, sitting for Judge York. Peterson in the days long gone by was merely a lawyer's clerk, but he was ambitious, and that's how the undoing of others came about. Now he fills a professional chair in an eastern college.

The suit is brought by Mrs. Rebecca W. Moore against Will D. Gould, the attorney, and a great number of other defendants, and the curtain rang up on the little picture story at the end of the 80's or early 90's. Sam Peterson was a clerk in Gould's law office, and was consumed with a desire to go to college. How to get there was the question, and the explanation as given by Mr. Gould is decidedly interesting.

Sam had between four and five acres of land in the La Cañada Valley. It was first-class land and he determined to try and mortgage it and with the proceeds pay his college expenses. He asked $400 an acre, but there were no takers, and, anyway, it was supposed to be well worth half of the valuation Sam put upon it. His employer, Gould, came to his aid and a plan was devised to raise money. It was arranged that Sam should mortgage the land to Gould for $700, and Dr. Moore, who was a friend of Gould's, and had interest in Peterson, put up the money, and had the property assigned to his wife, now plaintiff.

This transaction placed Gould in the position of having signed Sam Peterson's mortgage note for $700, and with the money Sam went to the National Normal at Lebanon, O., and afterward to Yale, from which he graduated. So far the money was not wasted. Before leaving, however, Sam gave a power of attorney to Gould to sell the acreage, and pay off the mortgage, but about that time men with money were not sinking it in real estate and poor persons looked upon it as a kind of white elephant. As time went on and the mortgage note matured, Peterson couldn't pay it off, and then Dr. Moore asked Gould for more security. Both men were friends, but business is business, and as the $700, with accumulated interest, had become $1100, Dr. Moore wanted the matter rearranged. Then it was that Gould gave his note for $550 secured by a mortgage made by himself and wife on their own property, both notes being included in the mortgage. It was understood and promised by Dr. Moore, according to Gould, that the amount of the last note should be indorsed on the first note, but this was not done and in time Dr. Moore died.

When the doctor's estate came to be settled up Gould's debt to the estate was appraised at $1000, and the estate was ordered distributed with it standing at that figure.

During this considerable interval Gould claims he performed legal services for Dr. Moore, and that it was understood such amounts should be applied on the notes in the Peterson matter. The stand he is now taking in court is that if this had been done the indebtedness would have been reduced to below the $1000 set out as being their value in the decree of distribution in Dr. Moore's estate.

Mrs. Moore refused to settle, after the order of distribution had been made, and has brought the present proceeding, claiming thta both notes are unpaid, and that there is nothing due to Gould for legal or any other kind of services.

MORTGAGE AND EXTRAS.

MRS. DOUTHITT WAS BUNCOED.

Attorney A. G. Hinckley is again a free man. Deputy District Attorney Donnell yesterday moved that the charge against him be dismissed, and Justice Young made the order. The evidence for and against Hinckley was of such a mixed-up character that it was hopeless to expect to convict on the embezzlement charge, even if he had been held to answer.

One thing was clearly illustrated by the facts, and that was the remarkably slick way they have of manipulating finances in Kansas. They occasionally have grasshoppers in Kansas, and it seems as if business was conducted on the grasshopper plan—any one getting hold of a bunch of money hates to let go until it is all gobbled up.

This money that Hinckley was charged with making away with came from Kansas. It escaped from the wreck of the Douthitt fortunes. About three years ago Douthitt died there, and his estate was valued at about $25,000. The widow knew nothing about business, and her son even less. The ranch was put up for sale and the son bought it, at his mother's desire, for $20,000. He didn't know how to go about holding the property, not having the actual cash. The sale was declared off and the place sold again. Then a banker named Mulvain bought the ranch for $15,000, and half of the money went into the Douthitt estate, while the other half belonged to Mrs. Douthitt, as her share of the community property.

She didn't get the money. On a variety of pretexts under color of law delay was made in the paying of the money, and finally Mulvain compromised with Mrs. Douthitt for $5000. Even then she didn't get the money. She was given two notes, each for $2000, and the odd $1000 was supposed to have been eaten up in the legal expenses of trimming off the edges of the $7500, which properly should have been paid to Mrs. Douthitt.

That is Mrs. Douthitt's explanation of the two notes, which Hinckley was charged with having manipulated out of sight. And it is a fact that they have disappeared, but owing to the laxity of Mrs. Douthitt and her son he could not be prosecuted on the criminal charge. So implicitly did they believe in Hinckley, upon the recommendation of a mutual friend, that they gave him a contract to collect all their outstanding money in the East, and look out for all the business in connection with the distribution of the estate of Douthitt. But that contract was not sweping enough to please Hinckley, and he drafted another confirmatory of the first one, and setting forth specifically that he had been employed to look after all the Douthitt's business, and was authorized to do all that in his best judgment he deemed wise, and receive and use all moneys that might come into his possession. After that Hinckley must have had qualms of doubt if not of conscience, for a third contract was prepared by him and signed by the mother and son from Kansas. This contract purported to be a basis of settlement between the Douthitts and Hinckley, and the sum total was that Hinckley and Douthitt were half-owners of the pumping plant at Palo Verde. Douthitt testified the plant cost about $400 to $500, and it was not certain that it would be a success.

Attorney Hinckley, on the other hand, pointed out that he had received for his clients $4600, and there is a balance in the bank to their joint account of about $500. That makes a grand total of $5100. Of that sum about $1600 had been checked out to them, and the Douthitt interest in the pumping plant, he avers, is worth today $2500 if it is worth a cent. The 320 acres of land has been enhanced in value to such an extent that Hinckley maintains the owner of the adjoining 320 acres was recently offered $25 an acre for his holding. On the same basis the joint holdings of himself and Douthitt are worth $9000.

CHRISTIE HELD.

ANOTHER TWIST IN THE CHAIN.

The second of the trio of conspirators in the real estate swindles by which the Continental Building and Loan Association was mulcted out of a large bunch of money, was held to answer by Justice Pierce yesterday. Henry Christie was not as shrewd in his dealings as Taylor, but he filled very well the niche provided by his co-partners, Taylor and Masterson.

The specific charge on which Christie was held was that of having forged a deed of trust, by which it was made to appear that Dr. Melville Miller and Evalena Miller, his wife, conveyed to the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company certain property, to be held in trust for a loan of $3290, advanced by the Continental Building and Loan Association.

The real estate having been appraised and the loan arranged the final scene took place in the office of the Lyda-Catherine Company, on the second floor of the Lankershim building, on April 15 of last year. Miss Edna Wright, the office stenographer, went on the stand and told about the preparation of the deed that Masterson signed for Miller, and she affixed her signature as Evalena Miller. Christie had come into the office before that and had said—after a whispered conversation with Masterson—that he would go and bring a notary. In a little while he returned with Ralph E. Bidwell, now living at Azusa. Masterson was introduced as Dr. Miller and Miss Wright had to pose as Mrs. Miller. When the notary asked if these were their signatures, the dummy Dr. Miller and Miss Wright bobbed their heads, and the notary passed out of the office.

The office of the Lyda-Catherine Company, where this transaction took place, was a side issued carried on by Masterson. Yesterday merely the facts immediately surrounding the forgery were shown and then the court held the defendant. Bond will be fixed this morning.

MABEL ATE TOO MUCH.

DEVOURED THE PROFITS.

For the most part, the inquiry before Judge Smith in the suit of Mrs. Belle Jordan against Watson, the money-lender, never rose yesterday above the dead level of interest, with just one or two little exceptions. The piano and how it got into the Jordan home was again adverted to, and Maj. Bell asked Mrs. Jordan how the purchase came about.

"He asked me what was the use renting a piano, for I had been paying $3.50 a month for an instrument. He said he would buy a piano—his exact words were 'I'll buy a piano for Mabel, for I want you to give me Mabel.'"

Then Mrs. Jordan described how Watson took her and her daughter to the store to select the instrument, and how the piano then was sent home.

"Who claimed it?" inquired counsel.

"Miss Jordan—my daughter," was the answer.

"And whose did Mr. Watson say that it was?"

"Why," in long drawn-out surprise, "Miss Jordan's."

Then Mrs. Jordan went on to tell of Watson suggesting that the daughter should go to San Francisco. His plea for urging it was that the mother's expenses would be much reduced.

"He said that Mabel was a great eater, and if she were away I would be better able to pay my interest," said the witness.

"Oh," exclaimed counsel, "then Mabel was eating up the profits of the business, was that it?"

Mrs. Jordan conceded the attorney had sized up the situation all right. But it appeared Mabel didn't want to go away and only consented when she realized that the sooner she went the sooner she would be able to aid her mother. Watson bought her a second-class ticket, but the mother added the difference of a first-class ticket, for she said her daughter had always been accustomed to travel first-class.

The case is still on trial.

COMPOSES SONGS.

COLORED POET IN COURT.

Charles George Code was in court yesterday with his hands in muffs. He wouldn't go to bed at the hospital, and had to be restrained for showing fight.

Code is a colored man who was discovered early one morning walking down the middle of Main street preaching and howling. He is a smiling, pleasant-speaking negro, and he didn't fail to sling scripture at Judge Wilbur, and tell about his poetical effusions to Dr. Brainerd.

When asked one of the stereotyped questions as to hearing voices, Code refused to discuss the matter.

"Aye, heah ma Sabior cummin'," he said, "and one night aye heah sum-one on the roof ov the' house an' expe to heah Gabriel's trumpet blowing. But aye wuz mistaken," and Charles George smiled and was not abashed.

"How old are you?" inquired the court.

"Aye done know," said he, "but ay's ole nuff to know right from wrong. Ma father and mother wuz jest slaves an' didn't know A from B."

Judge Wilbur wanted to know if he had any property, and at that Charles George straightened up and said that he had no more than was given by the Almighty, and that stood just six feet high.

Code applied to the authorities for a license to preach, but was turned down and then he began selling and giving away "spiritual songs," composed by himself. He said yesterday he had composed thirty-four of these songs, but had never published any until this one he was distributing.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

NOT TOO WELL ACQUAINTED.

Yesterday a young couple meandered into the office of the County Clerk, and inquired for the Cupid of the establishment. He was easily found, and then "Bob"—that's what the sweet girlie called him—intimated he wanted a marriage license. There had been 'steen others ahead of him and Cupid was not making any dainty flutters about that time, and was business from the ground up.

"What's the lady's name?" he asked.

"Mabel."

"Mabel, what?"

The would-be groom turned around in the most matter-of-fact way, "say, Mabel, what is your other name anyway?"

When the name had been dotted down all right Cupid wanted to know the state of the bride's nativity, and "Bob" was again knocked.

"I don't believe I ever did know where you came from—where was it, Mabel?"

And Mabel, cooling softly the answer, nestled down again by the side of a woman friend, who was with her.

"Bob" was weak on other requisite points. Finally, when the license was made out and there was yet to be entered the place to which it would have to be sent after having been recorded, the groom again appealed to his "Mabel" with the question where they could have it sent.

Then this loving and promising couple wandered out to try and find a short cut to the top floor of the courthouse, where justice and matrimony go hand in hand.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

SENT TO HIGHLAND. William Berl, a German, 48 years of age, was ordered committed to the insane asylum yesterday. Over a week ago Berl walked into the Police station and asked to be arrested and protected from the people who were trying to shoot electricity into him. He came from San Francisco.

BROWN DIVORCE. Ella V. Brown was yesterday granted a decree by Judge Oster, divorcing her from G. Harry Brown, on the ground of adultery.

KICK COMMITTED. J. H. Kick was slated for Highland yesterday. He is a young man, and said that recently he had a wonderful revelation from God. During the period of nine days he imagined he heard the voice of God talking to him.

MAXWELL COMPANY. The Maxwell Company (Inc.) has filed incorporation papers with capital stock set at $20,000, of which $6000 has been subscribed. The directors are J. A. Maxwell, R. T. Goodhue, J. Ottott, A. R. Field and Donald Barker.

MEXICAN COMPANY. The Esmeralda Mining and Development Company of Mexico has incorporated with a capital stock of $500,000, of which $500 has been subscribed. The directors are C. L. Byam, J. P. Randall, C. Timmons, F. B. Cox, and H. B. Eakins.

COUNTRY STORE. The Whittier Hardware Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $40,000, of which $500 has been subscribed. The directors are L. Butman, J. E. Davis, D. C. Andrews, A. U. Tomlinson and C. E. Cook, all residents of Whittier.

GRABBED THE GOODS. Attorney Dwyer got a judgment for $11.38 against S. Brennen, and Constable Pope of Ballona Township through his deputy, R. G. Roberts, made a levy upon Brennen's lunch counter and paraphernalia. This was to satisfy the judgment, but now Brennen is on the warpath after the constable of Ballona for making a levy upon goods that were covered by a mortgage.

ATTORNEY'S FEES. David Allen, Esq., is suing Mrs. Katherine D. Lewis, as administratrix of the estate of her father, the late Col. Blanton Duncan, for fees for legal services rendered the deceased. The amount alleged to be due is $1319.68, and is a balance. The trial is before Judge Allen.

LARGE TRANSFER.

Los Angeles Lighting Company Turns Holdings Over to Gas and Electric Company.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Los Angeles Lighting Company it was voted to transfer to the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company its business, franchises and properties as a whole; and at a meeting held the same afternoon by the last-named company the property was accepted, the transfer to take place the first of May.

The transfer is merely a matter of business convenience, practically a consolidation of the two companies whose business interests have been so closely allied, and the headquarters will continue to be at No. 645 South Hill street.

The Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company's stockholders will vote on June 15 on a proposition to create a bonded indebtedness of $4,000,000, to be secured by a deed of trust on all the properties of this corporation.

PIGS BLIND AND HOGS DISEASED.

MEAT INSPECTOR AND POLICE CAPTURE "PORK."

Purveyor of Swine Fed at City Garbage Crematory Charged With Selling Them to Marketmen, Though Unfit for Food—Another "Blind Pig" on Aliso Street.

Meat Inspector Hughes of the city health department yesterday swore out a complaint before Justice Austin, charging B. Burge with selling diseased pork. Burge will be arrested and arraigned today.

The health department has more trouble with men who sell diseased pork than with almost any other feature of the meat-inspection end of the business. There is a bunch of fellows over in the neighborhood of the city crematory feeding hogs on offal from the garbage wagons. They have been repeatedly arrested for violation of the law which is designed to protect the public from having foisted upon it pork infected with the diseases common to the hog.

Friday Inspector Hughes discovered two hogs which had been placed in cold storage by this man Burge, and they were so infected with cholera that they were at once confiscated and cremated. The tack of placing them in cold storage is taken by Burge in order to avoid being caught with them in his possession, and the hogs are then disposed of by giving the butcher an order upon the storage company.

The sample upon which the complaint against Burge was based yesterday was purchased by the inspector on the 13th inst., and after being thoroughly examined and submitted to the proper tests by the city bacteriologist, it was positively determined that the hog from which the pork was taken was afflicted with tuberculosis when killed.

It is a desperate state of affairs when the Health Office is compelled to keep so close a watch upon the purveyors of the meat supply of the city, in order to prevent unscrupulous people from forcing into the kitchens of Los Angeles pork that is actually death-dealing in its nature. If the condition of the pork from time to time taken from the people who feed hogs near the crematory is due to their being fed on garbage, a more severe penalty than a cash fine should be put upon those who are convicted of the offense.

Past experience shows that fining these men does not stop the trouble, and they are soon caught again at the old trick. It will not do for them to plead ignorance, for they are too well acquainted with the pork business to handle diseased pork and not know it. Any person trying to sell them meat of that kind would promptly learn of their definite knowledge upon the subject.

This Pig Was Blind.

Detectives Boyd and Riley pulled the operator of another French "blind pig" yesterday and he paid a fine of $100. His name is Z. Demcq and his place is on Aliso street, next door to that of Martin Grimeau, who paid $100 for the same offense on Wednesday.

When Demcq was sentenced by Justice Austin he said he had but $50 and would like to have time on the other half. In a jocular way Clerk Stockwell said to Bailiff Rosso:

"Take him down and lock him up."

Rosso seized the Frenchman by the arm and gave him a tug, when the prisoner's hand slid into his trouser pocket and came back with the even hundred.

Duncan-Hanson Wedding.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the nuptials of Miss Laura Duncan and Charles E. Hanson were solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Duncan, No. 314 Virgina street. The room in which the ceremony was performed was decorated with calla lilies and ferns, and the couple stood beneath an arch of asparagus plumosus and white roses, with a lovers' knot of satin ribbon just above their heads. The bride, who is a pretty little brunette, wore a dainty gown of white, with garniture of lace chiffon and ribbon, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. There were orange blossoms in her hair. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bartlett of the Bethlehem Church. During the ceremony soft music was rendered. Mr. Hanson is a civil engineer, with a home in Rialto, where he and his bride went immediately after the wedding. Mrs. Hanson is a dainty girl with a host of friends.

Unique Entertainment.

Mrs. L. K. Ellet and Miss Laura Ellet entertained at their home, No. 752 Lake street. The hostesses and their guests are a party of friends, who pass their summers at Catalina. Their mutual admiration of the island resort was made the central idea of a clever entertainment scheme. The prize in a fishing contest was a miniature of the steamer Hermosa, which plies between Catalina and San Pedro, in the summer. Salad was served in shining abalone shells, and the souvenirs were suggestive of Avalon. Miss Ellet, a talented pupil of Fraulein Schonrene of Minneapolis, sang several contralto solos. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Forsythe, Mrs. A. M. Dent, Mrs. Grace Dent, Miss Annabelle Owen, Miss Catta Owen, Mr. Davis, Clyde Forsythe, E. L. Berger, Dr. Rhodin Scudder, H. F. Feuer and Cecil Harrison.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

On Thursday morning there was a special meeting of the board of directors of the Ruskin Art Club, who were elected at the regular meeting of the club on Wednesday. They met together at 10:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing the officers for the coming year. The club seemed to agree upon all points as to the officers, and Mrs. W. H. Housh was unanimously chosen as president. This was doubly an honor, as it is the first time in the history of the club that one of the newer members has been chosen to fill this responsible position. Mrs. Housh was also chosen on account of her artistic talent, as she is an artist of considerable ability, making a specialty of landscapes. She has held the position of recording secretary, and also of director. Mrs. Housh is a charming woman, and the club is pleased with the choice, as she will surely prove an able and gracious presiding officer. Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Mrs. N. P. Conrey; second vice-president, Mrs. I. L. Hibbard; recording secretary, Miss McCutcheon; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. W. Pridham; treasurer, Mrs. G. L. Hutchinson; financial secretary, Miss Victoria Witmer; librarian, Mrs. W. M. Dixon; curator, Miss Elizabeth Marble; chairman Membership Committee, Mrs. W. T. McFie; chairman Hospitality Committee, Mrs. W. J. Washburn; chairman of Housekeeping Committee, Mrs. Alexander Caldwell; chairman Programme and Printing Committee, Mrs. J. W. Hendrick. Mrs. J. S. Stearns was made honorary vice-president.

Ontario Current Events.

The annual business meeting of the Ontario Current Events Club was held Wednesday at Odd Fellows' Hall. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. J. Jesson, president; Mrs. A. K. Nealer, vice-president; Mrs. M. G. Bates, secretary; Mrs. A. D. Moore, treasurer. After all business matters had been transacted a musical programme was enjoyed, followed by dainty refreshments.

TWO NEW CHURCHES.

Contracts Awarded Yesterday for Edifices at Pico Heights and Hollywood.

Yesterday contracts were awarded for two new Catholic Church edifices to be built on plans prepared by the firm of Magennis, Sullivan & Walsh, architects of Boston.

The church for the parish of St. Thomas the Apostle is to be located on the southwest corner of Pico and Hobson streets, Pico Heights. A view of the proposed structure has been published in The Times. The contract for this building was awarded to the Pioneer Building Company, the price being $24,675.

The building for the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at Hollywood will be erected by P. J. Bolin, at a cost of $9000. It is to be a structure 42x88 feet, with a 16x16-foot tower, 76 feet high. The general style is that of New England village church architecture. On the interior the trusses are to be exposed, and there will be a rood screen at the sanctuary, and, recesses for the two side altars.

Matthew Sullivan of the Magennis, Sullivan & Walsh firm, is here from Boston, and besides bringing the plans for the above buildings he has in preparation plans for the convent of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, to be located on Pico Heights, near Western avenue; and plans for the new Cathedral school.

WOODWORKERS WALK OUT.

MILL DOESN'T CONSULT UNION BOSSES ABOUT HOURS.

Places of Men Out of Jobs Will be Filled Today by Willing Workers—Agitators Coming Again to Attempt to Organize the Local Street Car Men.

Spurred to action by "Pinhead" McCarthy and other jawsmiths of a like purpose and caliber, another bunch of union men bumped up against a losing proposition, demonstrating that labor agitation in this city is still bearing fruit of the Dead Sea variety.

Yesterday afternoon the union men in the employ of the University Planing Mill Company, Thirty-ninth street and Wesley avenue, were called out by walking delegates, which means that today just that number of men are looking for jobs with small probability of finding them.

Since the organization of the company two years ago, the eight-hour schedule has been effective at the mill, during which period there has been no discrimination in the employment of men, though non-union operators have been largely in the majority. In competing with other mills maintaining a nine-hour schedule, the University company found it a losing game and last Tuesday determined upon a change from eight to nine hours. Accordingly a notice to that effect.

As a result "business agents" of the Woodworkers' Union got busy, but the University people refused to confer with them. From the company's standpoint there was nothing to talk about. The regulation suited the employers and the non-union employés, and if others didn't like it, all they had to do was to get out. This they did last evening.

This morning the places vacated will be filled by men ready to meet their employers on an equitable basis, thus adding one more "open-shop" mill to the number operating in Los Angeles.

Manager Frank W. Gregg of the company said: "We have had no trouble with our men, but we found that for an eight-hour mill to try to compete with mills maintaining nine-hour schedules was not an equitable financial adjustment as between employés and employers. It left us but little profit, and our demand is not unjust or oppressive. We have no business relations with the Woodworkers' Union, consequently did not consult its officers. We purpose running our business to suit ourselves, and we anticipate no trouble in maintaining a full force in harmony with our requirements. 'Business agents' have been pestering us since Tuesday, but their utterances are of the 'hot-air' variety, not worthy of consideration. The unionites get their time this afternoon and we are glad to get rid of them. We would have discharged some of them for incompetency long ago, only we did not care to create an issue with the union. It is our privilege to change hours on a fair basis and it is the employé's privilege to quit. We have men to replace every striker, and purpose conducting our business according to business principles. What the men expect to gain by walking out is problematical. Of one thing they may be assured, however, and that is that we will not tolerate the slightest interference."

MORE AGITATORS.

"Pinhead" McCarthy has cast longing eyes upon Los Angeles. He likes the Southland climate and the easy union money looks good to him. McCarthy has, in fact, been repudiated by his former supporters in San Francisco and he is obliged to seek a new field or go to work. With him will come Agitator Cornelius of the Carmen's Union. Their effort will be to organize the Los Angeles carmen. In the attempted accomplishment of this task every trick known to these manipulators will be resorted to. Failing in the usual form of organization an effort will be made to get the men together in a "social club." If this doesn't work the intended victims of the greed of the arch-agitators are to be drawn into a secret society of which Cornelius and many of the carmen are members. Then Cornelius hopes to be able to get them together and out of that order form a union that will make for Los Angeles the same intolerable conditions that beset the Bay City.

FULL FORCE AND NIGHT SHIFT.

MACHINISTS WORKING AT SAN BERNARDINO SHOPS.

Car Filled With Men Taken There Tuesday Night—Sheriff Swears in Fifteen More Guards for Duty Along Line to Needles—Catalina Isthmus Colonists Depart.

The strike of machinists on the Santa Fé has had little effect on conditions in the company's shops in San Bernardino. A full force of expert machinists is at work there.

Thursday night a car filled with new men was taken to San Bernardino, and last evening a night shift was put to work.

A secret meeting of the strikers was held in San Bernardino yesterday afternoon, after they had been spending most of the day in discussing their imaginary grievance with the unsympathetic public.

The Sheriff of San Bernardino county yesterday morning swore in fifteen more guards for duty under direction of Bud West, the special Santa Fé officer, who has full charge of policing the shops and other Santa Fé property between San Bernardino and the Needles. Most of these guards went to Needles on the Overland last night.

The strikers declare that next month will probably see the dawning of trouble among the firemen, whose contract with the company will expire in May. It is also stated that the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at Los Angeles in May will see the shaping of a contract which is certain to be rejected by the company. Even some of the engineers intimate that the proposed contract may cause trouble.

General Superintendent Shepard inspected the shops and yards at San Bernardino yesterday, in company with Division Superintendent Hebbard. During their stay the Santa Fé fire department was put through a drill, which was cleverly executed. The general superintendent was well pleased with the condition of affairs at the shops, especially in the machine department.

General Manager Wells last night averred that there are no new developments in the strike situation.

COLONISTS DEPART.

AVALON, April 28.—The Isthmus has lost the greater part of its population. The machinists' strike on the Santa Fé has caused the removal of all but about twenty of the men, who were mobilized there, and it is likely that today will see the last of them depart. There were about two hundred men assembled at one time. It made a lively camp.

REALTY MEN TALK.

Want Law's Protection in the Matter of Commissions—Contracts Are Discussed.

The law and the commission were topics discussed by members of the Los Angeles Realty Board yesterday at a luncheon given by that body. A number of guests were present and some of them spoke also.

In the absence of President Erkenbrecher an address prepared by him was read, in which he declared that the board desired property owners to know that the organization is not a trust, with designs upon innocent taxpayers.

Vice-President Leonard Merrill said that the board does not desire a "cinch" law. Nothing would be advocated, he said, but what would be accepted by the members of the board just as readily if they were to exchange places with owners. He thought the matter of the collection of commissions was particularly worthy of attention and action of the next Legislature, and quoted an instance where an agent had tried to collect a commission, and had been told that he had no remedy in law, although he had been instructed in a letter, to bring about a certain deal.

Assemblyman Philip A. Stanton, who is a member of the board, said that a real estate man is now in the eyes of the law an outlaw. It is not necessary, he said, for a butcher or grocer, a physician or a lawyer, to have a written contract when he enters into a business arrangement, but in four States of the Union, including California, it is necessary for a real estate man. The other three States having a similar law, are Oregon, Montana and Indiana. No such law exists in New York.

Instances tending to prove the injustice of the existing law to honest real estate men were related by Thomas J. Hampton and others. It was stated by several that it was impossible to secure a written contract at present from many owners of property, some of whom might be inclined to take unfair advantage of the law. This had been done in instances, a few of which were quoted.

Speeches were also made by G. M. Giffen, R. W. Poindexter, Lee C. Gates, Robert Hale and Meyer Lissner.

CREDIT ABSORPTION. The following, from the Wall Street Journal, has much interest: Nothing has puzzled students of the business situation so much as the condition of agricultural wealth and commercial progress on the one hand, and the symptoms of financial exhaustion on the other. There has been a wonderful increase in the circulation of money, but, at the same time, a severe and prostrating congestion of credits.

It has seemed difficult to reconcile these two conditions so inconsistent with each other. We think, however, that the seat of the trouble is disclosed in the following table, comparing the percentages of increase from 1896 to 1903 of the bank credits with the population, the wealth, the money and the principal products of the country.

COMMERCIAL.

TEAS. High grades are off a little and seem unsteady; low grades are considerably higher; Congou standards being quotable at 11 cents. No one seems able to forecast the result of the Russo-Japanese war on teas. If the government puts a war tax on tea, which is not at all unlikely, inasmuch as they are taxing everything else, both Japans and Formosa will advance. The enormous expense of the Japanese government during the present embroglio will have to be met in some way.

COFFEES. The unhealthy advances of coffee during February were dissipated in a very few days, but the present advance seems more likely to remain strong. No. 7 Rio, the basis of the world in coffees, is quoted firm at 7¾ New York, on change, for spot options; a premium would be added for delivery of the real article, if a purchaser applied for quotations. Low grades are very hard to get and are much demanded. Coffee people, in general, look for higher prices.

PEANUTS. This little nut is extremely high just now, and possibly, owing to the shortage in crops of the East and South, the prices will go soaring higher. Further incentive to higher quotations is the opening of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, whose millions of visitors will require peanuts. The consumption of peanuts in the United States would startle the man who does not think about these little things.

LEAD AND OILS. No particular change has taken place in oils or lead since pig lead went up, causing white lead to follow, where it has remained firm since. No indications for an advance. Linseed oil may advance, if there is any movement at all within the coming month.

CITRUS MOVEMENTS. On Wednesday 167 cars of oranges, 4 cars of lemons went forward; grand total, 13,460.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The fish situation remains unchanged; halibut was more plentiful yesterday, but demand easily consumed the supply. Other fish extremely low in supply, with late trains adding to the complexity of the situation.

Eggs are up a cent. The local hens are going on a strike, in sympathy with the San Bernardino mechanics, which will have a tendency to raise the price of eggs and lower the price of chicken. Poultry men want hens, and produce men want eggs—so there you are; arrange it to suit yourselves.

Strawberries showed weakness, owing to sunny picking weather.

Local tomatoes are about the same. Fancy Florida, six-basket crates, quotable at 3.00 to 4.00.

Poultry always dull on Mondays and Thursday, will show heavy receipts today, and Saturday. Broilers are off a little and coming in more freely.

The Produce Exchange had a full membership on hand yesterday to select candidates for the annual election may 25. The names of those selected were not given out for publication.

NEW YORK MARKETS. SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 28.—The listless drifting to which the stock market is being accustomed was again notably in evidence today. The board room was practically idle during the later part of the day, and brokers were driven to while away the time with such pranks as brokers are prone to do. With money to be had on almost nominal terms, there is no pressure to sell stocks in order to realize cash, and no one not forced to do so would attempt to make the holdings in such a narrow market. On the other hand, there seems to be exhibited in the conditions or prospects that can induce the buying of stocks, in spite of the abundant facilities to be had in the way of borrowed money. The consequence is the legacy of capital which the market is witnessing with puzzled guesses as to how and when it may end. Indications are plain that the outgo of gold will continue on a heavy scale, as supplies are abundant. The sterling rate at Paris bank to 7.25 10 centimes today, thus widening the margin of profit on gold shipments from New York, in spite of exchange at par for sterling here. The payment of the $10,000,000 to the Panama government was also announced from Washington, but no effect was produced in the local money market. The money market is obviously sensitive to the offering of any fresh claims on capital resources. The weather news was favorable to crop prospects, but was of little effect on stocks. There was some pressure on United States Steel preferred, but the stock recovered to a trifle above last night. The market closed stagnant. Bonds were neglected and about steady. Total sales, $1,675,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKET.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, April 28.—The opening in wheat was barely steady today, owing to the unresponsive tone of cables and more favorable weather, both in the Northwest and Southwest. The July delivery was ¼ to ⅝ lower, ranging from 81¾@81⅞. The world's good demand, however, from the start, commission houses and shorts being active bidders. With only moderate offerings the market soon developed considerable strength. Bullish sentiment was largely the result of crop damage reports. Prices steadily advanced, until July touched 82, from which point some reaction occurred on liberal selling by a big holder. The close was strong, with July at 82¼@82⅝. May closed at 85½. Early in the day, traders in the corn pit were in a quandary over the action of the leading long, and in consequence the volume of business was light. The market closed about steady. July closed at 45¾ and May at 48⅞. Oats were independently strong on an active general demand. July closed 1¾ higher, at 35. Provisions were firm early in the day, but later there was free selling. The market closed easier, with pork 2½@5c off, lard 5 down, and ribs 12½ lower.

The leading futures closed as follows:

HILL BUSY WITH SECURITIES BUSINESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James J. Hill, president of the Northern Securities Company, left this city today for St. Paul. Prior to the beginning of the Harriman suits to prevent distribution of Northern Securities assets along the lines planned by Hill, the latter had proposed to make a trip to the Pacific Coast. Looking after the details connected with the suits, however, caused him to postpone this trip, but it was understood today that before he returns to this city, he will visit the Pacific Coast.

The question as to how the stockholders of the Northern Securities Companies will fare as to dividends, should the litigation be long drawn out, as now appears likely, is interesting Wall street. The bulk of the company's income has been derived from dividends on Northern Pacific and Great Northern stock, which it holds, but the decree of the Circuit Court prevents the payment of these dividends to the company. One of the plans under consideration contemplates the assignment of dividend claims by Northern Securities stockholders to a fiduciary agent, who could pay the stockholders and collect dividends when they should be released by the winding-up of the Securities company.

Harriman Hearing Again Put Off.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The hearing in the Harriman-Pierce suit against the Northern Securities Company for the distribution of the stocks, which was to have come before United States Judge Kirkpatrick at Newark today, was again postponed, adjournment being taken until Monday, May 9.

HOME FROM AFRICA.

Col. Duerr's Heart Too Weak for Action Against the Hereros. Grootfontein Asks Aid.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, April 28.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Col. Duerr, concerning whose return from German Southwest Africa conflicting reasons have been given, arrived at Hamburg today, and made the impression that he was a very sick man.

The commandant of the Grootfontein district, German Southwest Africa, cables that the Germans there have suffered most severe losses, and lack the necessaries of life. He adds: "I beg for immediate assistance."

A semi-official publication says the authorities here do not expect further engagements with the Hereros until the German force has had the opportunity of striking a decisive blow.

The Cologne Zeitung printed today a Berlin dispatch evidently inspired and designed to defend the government against the charge of lack of energy in suppressing the rebellion.

The Vossiche Zeitung says Emperor William has expressed open dissatisfaction with the movement of affairs in Southwest Africa.

The Tageliche Rundschau prints a letter from Southwest Africa, apparently written by one of Col. Duerr's officers, describing the annoyance to which the officers and men are subjected. Upon landing at Swakopmund, the local customs official insisted on a minute examination of their baggage and supplies, and collected duties on the officers' sporting rifles, wine, cigars, etc. This examination delayed the departure of the column for the front, and many of the privates had to leave without their baggage, because the railway authorities wanted space to carry private goods, which paid freight. The army supplies left at Swakopmund were stored in sheds, from which large quantities were stolen.

The correspondent adds that all the worries had a depressing effect on Col. Duerr, who suffered from a weak heart before he left Germany, and his physician had to order his immediate return home.

Political circles assert that the object of Emperor William in ordering Chancellor Von Buelow to Karlsruhe was to confer with him on the African situation. The Chancellor takes with him an elaborate review of the military situation, drawn up by the General Staff, which has been busy conferring for several days with the Colonial Office. It is expected that the Emperor will reach a speedy decision, and order large reinforcements to Africa.

NO TRACE OF BARON TOLL.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 28.—Engineer Brousneff, who was sent out in the spring of 1903 by the Imperial Academy of Sciences, in company with Lieut. Koichak and a number of experienced Yakuts and coast people, to search New Siberia and Bennett Island, to search for the Polar expedition headed by Baron Toll, has returned. Baron Toll has not been heard from since he and his companions left the yacht Zaria, may 23, 1902, in company with two Yakuts and started for Bennett Island. The Brousneff expedition visited Bennett Island after Lieut. Koichak had searched Kotnelli Island, Siberia, and the Thadeusa Islands. No trace of the Toll expedition was found.

WANT PANAMA TO PAY A SHARE.

NEW YORK, April 28.—At a general meeting of holders of bonds of the external debt of Colombia, a resolution has been adopted, says a Times dispatch from London, in which the bondholders placed on record their "right to require from the government of Panama that it assume the obligation for a just and equitable proportion of the external debt of Colombia, based on the money that the government will receive from the United States in respect to the canal concessions." Another resolution was passed earnestly requesting His Majesty's government and the government of the United States to use their good offices in behalf of the bonJholders.

BAPTIST FOREIGN MISSIONARIES.

OMAHA, April 28.—At today's session of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Conference announcement was made that to a call for twelve missionaries for the foreign field, there had been three responses, one being from Miss Jackson of Seattle. Much routine work was disposed of. Mrs. John Edward Scott of Evanston, Ill., was elected president. An executive board of seven members, all of Chicago and twenty State vice-presidents were also elected. Twenty State secretaries will later be appointed by the executive board.

FLOOD CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—Flood conditions along the Mississippi and North rivers are improving. The break in the levee above Venice has spread the water over a large area, and removed the danger of the flood forcing the embankments protecting valuable property. Below East St. Louis there is a break in the Concloue roads, and the little town of Rush City is entirely inundated. The residents were forced to desert their homes, the water in places having reached a depth of six feet.

IMMORAL FOREIGN CONSULS.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Charges of gross immorality on the part of consular officials located in Liberia were made by Miss A. A. Klein, one of the speakers at today's session of the Florence Crittendon Mission, in a talk on "Preventive and Rescue Work for Girls in Africa." Miss Klein specifically exempted the Rev. Lyons, the United States Consul at Monrovia, the capital, from the charges made against the other consular officials, and paid a high tribute to him.

YOUTHFUL TRAIN WRECKER.

DENVER, April 28.—A special to the Republican from Cañon City, Colo., says that Lowell Ellis, 15 years old, was today convicted of attempting to wreck a Denver and Rio Grande freight train near Portland, Colo., January 16, by pulling spikes from the rails. He was remanded to the County Jail to await sentence. The minimum punishment for this is ten years in the penitentiary. Myron Aldrich and William Denton, alleged accomplices, are yet to be tried. They are even younger than Ellis.

ELSINORE.

PROPERTY CHANGES HANDS.

ELSINORE, April 28.—Anthony Keith of Long Beach has purchased of James Balfour, his house and lot on Riley street.

A. J. Wilson of Ocean Park has purchased a couple of lots cornering on Herald avenue and Langstaff street. Mr. Wilson expects to build.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clayton left yesterday for Sanger, Fresno county, where they will spend the summer with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Finley of Long Beach are guests at the Hot Springs Hotel.

FULLERTON.

EXTENDING WATER-PIPE.

FULLERTON, April 28.—The East Whittier and La Habra Water Company is continuing its main distribution pipe line from the center of La Habra Valley northeast to a point on a small hill at the mouth of Brea Cañon, where an immense reservoir will be erected for storing water to irrigate all of the east end of the valley. The main pipe is over two feet in diameter. Distributing pipes will also be laid throughout the east end of the valley the same as in the west end.

VARICOCELE

Every man having varicocele can be cured, but any and every external application—medicines internally, electricity electric belts—ARE ALL ABSOLUTELY WORTHLESS. There is but one method that will cure varicocele. Dr. Harrison is the only specialist in Los Angeles using that method. Dr. Harrison guarantees an absolute, permanent, and perfect cure. We refer above dozens of men right here in Los Angeles we have cured. We cordially invite men to call.

CONTRACTED DISORDERS

Are cured by us. Every particle of poison thoroughly eradicated from the system. Every patient coming to us consults no one but Dr. Harrison, or his associate, both regular physicians. Each and every man coming to us for consultation has his case carefully and understandingly looked into. Every case we treat receives our personal attention.

STRICTURE

This trouble we treat successfully by our improved methods, which never fail to bring about a cure. Electricity or electric belts cannot do this trouble any good. When you employ either you throw your money away. Call and let us explain the nature of the trouble and how you can be permanently cured.

"WEAKNESS"

Affections of man commonly described as "weakness," according to our observations, are not such, but depend upon reflex disturbances, and are almost invariably induced or maintained by apprecible diseases of the prostate gland. As this may not be perceived by the patient, it is very frequently overlooked by the physician.

If you come to us we give you a thorough examination and consultation absolutely free, and truthfully tell you if you can be cured.

FIGHTING OVER A STORE LEASE.

TENANT TEARS DOWN PARTITION BUILT BY A RIVAL.

Plan Proposed for Advertising Pasadena in the East—Tent House Destroyed and Occupant Severely Burned—Swell Ante-nuptial Function Given at Hotel Green.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 36 South Raymond avenue, April 28.—There was considerable fun yesterday afternoon at No. 36 South Raymond avenue over the question as to who was the landlord of the establishment. A. C. Herrick, who has had a lease from the Vandevort estate for several years past, and whose lease expires on May 1, came over from Los Angeles to find that his claim had been jumped. The Western Union Telegraph Company had secured a lease from the owners, and had sublet the room in a manner that pretty nearly shoved Herrick out into the street, bicycles, sewing machines and all.

Real Estate Agent McNally rented one-half the store front from the Western Union and yesterday employed three carpenters to place a partition from the floor to the ceiling on his side. When Herrick saw that partition he was wroth. First he tried to get a policeman to come and forbid its being finished, but he was told that the police had no jurisdiction. Legal advisers assured Herrick that as his lease was not dead for two days yet, he could do as he pleased with the store.

So the irate bicycle man came forth with a hammer and deliberately battered down the partition and removed it from under McNally's nose, as it were. McNally says there'll be something more doing and, as Herrick claims that he has a verbal promise of a renewal of the lease, given in the presence of witnesses, he thinks also there will be something doing, in short that won't get out till he's thrown out. The Western Union people have to get out of their present quarters on the first of May. The situation, therefore, is a strenuous one and legal counsel is being searched on all sides. It looks as though somebody would be in the street yet.

TO ADVERTISE PASADENA.

John A. Lukin, captain of the Uniform Rank of Knights of Pythias, and also captain of the Uniform Rank of the Maccabees, outlined a plan at a joint meeting of the two local orders last night which will result in much advertising for Pasadena if successfully carried out.

Mr. Lukin proposes to pick thirty men from the ranks of the two organizations and compete for prizes at Louisville, August 15, at the Pythian encampment, and later at the meeting of the Maccabees at St. Louis, August 22.

The meeting last night was attended by several members of both orders from Los Angeles, and addresses were delivered by Col. J. L. Jones of the Maccabees, James G. Scarborough of the Knights of Pythias, and Maj. O. S. Ihrig, all of Los Angeles, enthusiastically endorsing the proposition.

At the close of the business meeting the Rathbone Sisters served a banquet at which plates were placed for seventy-five.

WOMAN BURNED.

A tent-house belonging to Mrs. Amanda McCoy, corner California street and Raymond avenue, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon and Mrs. McCoy was frightfully burned about the face and hands.

A line of clothes was hanging directly over a gasoline stove. The fire reached the line and the tent house was instantly in flames. In attempting to extinguish the fire, the clothing of Mrs. McCoy was ignited. She ran out of doors and by rolling on the grass partly extinguished the fire. A gentleman passing at the time threw a blanket about her, which act probably saved her life.

LATE REALTY SALES.

Ernest H. Lockwood reports the sale of a tract 248x440 feet at the corner of Pasadena avenue and Belfonte street, from G. H. Baker to the J. and W. Thum Company; consideration not given. Also, same to same, a lot at the corner of Marengo avenue and Colorado street, 60x120 feet, consideration named $21,000.

William H. Lake of Chicago has purchased through the same agency twenty acres in Altadena, just north of the tract recently purchased by Robert Moran of Seattle.

Mrs. S. W. Allerton has bought for her niece, Mrs. Louis Clark, a lot on Highland street, near Buena Vista, from C. M. Davis. Mrs. Clark will erect a handsome home on the ground. The sale was also made through the Lockwood agency.

FOR A BRIDE-TO-BE.

The first ante-nuptial function given for Miss Francina Emery, who is to marry C. Mortimer Henderson June 1, was given yesterday by Miss Angie Holmes at Hotel Green. It was a most charmingly-appointed luncheon for which covers were laid for sixteen. The table was beautifully embellished with pink Shirley poppies, used as a centerpiece and surrounded with sprays of asparagus plumosus, pink sweet peas were strewn over the cloth and the place cards were ornamented with French poster girls' heads. The ices were in the form of white doves, billing and cooing, and the accessories were suggestive of spring and the little god of love. The wedding to which this was incidental will occur at Montecito, June 1, and will be a picturesque affair. The ceremony will be performed at sunset in the garden, in the summer place of the bride's father. Miss Holmes is to be one of the bridesmaids and Miss Helen Emery, niece of the bride, is to be another. Mrs. Edward H. Groenke, formerly Miss Morehouse, will be matron of honor and Roy Macomber will act as best man. The guests at yesterday's luncheon were, besides the hostess and guest of honor: Misses Burcham, Alice Markham, Irma Shinshaw, Hambline, Belle Bragdon, Adine Valiette, Hannah Nevin, Blanch McCaully, Lillian Guyer, Edith Loveland, Marion Armstrong, Theresa Cloud, Emma Claypool, Fay Claypool. The affair was chaperoned by Mrs. J. H. Holmes.

FAR AND NEAR.

Sakko Shimada, the noted Japanese painter of fishes, who has been painting for Prof. David Starr Jordan of Stanford University, a piscatorial authority, is in Pasadena to spend several months before touring Europe.

Miss Lucy E. Barnes and John H. Slocum of Springfield, Mass., were married on Wednesday by Rev. R. R. Meredith. After a honeymoon they will reside in Pasadena.

Pasadena Commandery, Knights Templar, on Wednesday night received an official visit from Eminent Grand Commander of the State W. Frank Pierce.

J. Beatty and Estelle Lawray, a very rapid young couple from Los Angeles, were jailed yesterday for drunkenness and fast driving in the east part of town.

The death of Ann Rankins, a native of Canada, aged 65 years, occurred yesterday at No. 219 North Raymond avenue. The funeral will take place Friday at 10 a.m.

The North Pasadena W.C.T.U. has inaugurated a crusade against the cigarette.

The Merchants' Association directorate met yesterday and carried out the slated programme by choosing J. Herbert Hall, president; C. D. Sargent, vice-president; D. W. Coolidge, secretary-treasurer.

At the annual meeting of the North Congregational Church, held last night, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Trustees, M. D. Painter, Dr. H. M. Field, Charles G. Lynch, Benjamin Taylor and J. H. Woodworth; deacons, Dr. H. M. Field, M. D. Painter, T. T. Hayward.

Tonight the country jay members of the Eastern Star will entertain the men of the Masonic Fraternity and their friends at Masonic Temple. Come and see the fun. Benefit of new Masonic Temple.

Our Japanese mechanics will repair your art goods and antique furniture. Kuranaga.

EL MONTE.

LOOKING OVER THE GROUND.

EL MONTE, April 28.—Representatives of the Pacific Electric Railway were in town this week to look over the proposed route of the road. The manager of the company and Chief Engineer Pillsbury were in the party. A committee composed of M. F. Quinn, A. P. Brockway, and A. N. Wiggins escorted them through the valley. Nothing was revealed as to the exact route of the line, but there is no doubt that it will take in El Monte.

FARMERS CLUB.

At the meeting of the El Monte Farmers Club last evening the main feature was a paper read by W. Scott Way of Pasadena, deputy county game warden, on "Birds and Their Relation to Agriculture." He showed the benefit to the fruit and grain grower of a great number of common birds which live almost entirely upon injurious insects and seeds of noxious plants. He deplored the slaughter of these birds for the decoration of women's hats, which takes more than ten million birds annually. M. F. Dunn read a paper on "Woman," beginning with Semiramis and ending with those present. Mrs. J. G. Warren rendered a vocal solo and also read an excellent paper on the subject of "Front Yards."

RIVERA.

REV. G. W. MAXSON DEAD.

RIVERA, April 28.—Rev. G. W. Maxson, for fifteen years pastor of the Rivera Presbyterian Church, died this morning at his home in Montebello, after a lingering illness of several months. Mr. Maxson served in the Confederate Army all through the Civil War, attaining the rank of major. He was a man of finely cultivated intellect, and presided over several institutions of learning in the South before coming for his health to California in 1887. He leaves a family of three daughters and three sons.

WHITTIER.

CHURCH CORNER-STONE LAID.

WHITTIER, April 28.—The corner-stone of the First Methodist Episcopal Church was laid this afternoon. The congregation first gathered in the large tent which has temporarily served as a meeting-house. Rev. J. L. Pitner, D.D., of Los Angeles preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion, which was followed by singing. The congregation then repaired to the new edifice, where the ceremony was completed, as follows: Singing by the choir; stating of the custom of the corner-stone by Dr. Pitner; reading of list of articles to be placed in the stone by Rev. Betts; placing the contents in the stone and sealing it up; prayer by Rev. N. T. Edwards of the Congregational Church; benediction by Rev. Betts.

The new church will cost about $15,000 completed, being finished outside with granite and alpine plaster. There will be a $3000 pipe organ installed in it, the first pipe organ in the city.

FUNERAL OF H. L. WILSON.

The funeral of Harry L. Wilson will take place at Friends' Church tomorrow at 2 o'clock, Rev. Whl A. Betts of the Methodist Episcopal Church officiating. The local Masonic and Knights of Pythias lodges, of which Mr. Wilson was a member, will meet at 1 o'clock and attend in a body.

CATALINA ISLAND.

A PERILOUS VOYAGE.

AVALON, April 28.—Two young men, Bob Roberts and Tommy Whitley, arrived here this morning from San Clemente in a small skiff. They left at midnight, last night, and rowed in a nasty sea, that several times filled their little craft half full of water at a single dip and kept them baleing a good portion of the time. They were impelled to come by urgent business. The schooner Santa Rosa Island was due to arrive at San Clemente to carry away a cargo of sheep last Saturday. The sheep were corralled and had been waiting five days and the boys were dispatched here to send a wireless message to the vessel's owners to learn the cause of the delay. Before noon they received the information that the schooner got stuck in the mud at San Diego on Friday and had not yet gotten off.

LUCKY FISHERMEN.

F. L. Harding of Philadelphia, who a couple of years ago spent five months here, has returned with his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harding and Miss Sarah L. Harding. This morning the young man went out with the Violet G. and had the luck to take a forty-one-pound white sea bass.

Yellowtail Johnnie lined up this morning after his usual bout with the fishes with a thirty-five pound yellowtail and three rock bass.

PERSONAL NOTES.

CARRIED AWAY BY UNDERTOW.

BATHER ALMOST DROWNED AT LONG BEACH.

Mrs. Abbott Narrowly Escapes Being Season's First Victim of Treacherous Surf—San Diego Cook Arrested for Wearing Nagel's Overcoat.

LONG BEACH, April 28.—The deadly undertow nearly claimed its first victim of the season today. Mrs. Abbott, residing at No. 342 Pacific avenue, was bathing in the surf and an unusually high breaker took her off her feet and she was carried beyond her depth. Being a good swimmer she lay on her back and floated out. Two men near by went to her assistance and succeeded in getting her ashore, aided by Capt. J. M. Barry, the swimming teacher at the plunge. Mrs. Abbott suffered from a nervous chill and hysterics, and Dr. J. W. Wood worked two hours before he pronounced her out of danger. She was taken home and no serious results are feared.

WHO OWNS THE BLUFF.

The mass meeting held at the Tabernacle on tight to take action on the question of title to the bluff and beach, was fairly well attended and a discussion was had of the issues and of the city's claim to the property now held by the Seaside Water Company. W. W. Lowe presided, and gave a synopsis of the matter in controversy, and the claims of the city as proved by the recorded map of Willmore City, filed in 1886, which shows no southerly line of Ocean Park avenue. Mr. Lowe claimed that the decision of Judge Shaw was not a judgment, but a compromise made because the city was too poor to fight the suit. He thought the citizens should get up a fund and carry the matter for settlement to the United States Supreme Court, and have it settled once for all.

Speeches were made by J. G. Parish, Capt. Harry Palmer, J. J. Holly, Col. Horne, S. Heller and others, all in favor of taking steps to get an opinion from Federal attorneys as to whether or not the city had any title, and if so, to push the matter to a finish.

By a rising vote, the meeting decided to take steps to try to establish the city's rights on the ocean front, and then Rev. Holly called for pledges of $10 and $5, and they came so thick and fast that three clerks were kept busy. Four hundred dollars was collected, and a committee will make a canvass of the town today for additional funds.

PINCHED OVERCOAT.

A man named Dickinson, who claims to be a cook from San Diego, was arrested yesterday charged with stealing a fine overcoat from A. C. Nagel of Los Angeles, who lost it at the pavilion dance Tuesday night. Nagel went to Terminal yesterday and found his overcoat on Dickinson, who claims he saw two boys steal it and following them to Terminal forced them to surrender the coat by representing he was an officer. Nagel coaxed him across the bay and there Constable Lynn arrested Dickinson and brought him to Long Beach.

COMMERCIAL WHARF.

C. J. Walker, who purchased a franchise for a commercial wharf some time ago, is pushing the project and says the work of construction will begin in a few weeks. Capt. Healey, the government engineer, took soundings yesterday and the lumber and piling have been ordered. The new wharf will be 1920 feet long and vessels will have over 35 feet of water at the outer end.

BEACH COMBINGS.

There was a rainfall this morning of .13 of an inch.

The Seaside Farmers' Institute will be held in this city August 22 to 27, at the Congregational Church and will be under the direction of Prof. A. J. Cook. Gov. Pardee has promised to attend and an interesting and valuable address is expected of him. The Board of Trade will do all in its power to make this the best meeting ever held in this section of the State.

The Pacific Electric has a large force of cholos at work laying the second track to Seaside Park.

Twelve touring autos, containing the Long Beach Marine Band and a score of High School girls and society women gave a novel street parade this evening, advertising the ladies' minstrel show at the Tabernacle tomorrow night. Indications point to a crowded house.

An old soldier named Joseph Russell, accidentally cut his wrist yesterday with a pocketknife, severing an artery and nearly bled to death before medical assistance could be secured.

COVINA.

CAUCUS NOMINEES.

COVINA, April 28.—The Republican caucus held last evening brought out a large representation, and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested whenever the name of Roosevelt was mentioned. The following Republicans were selected as nomines to be voted upon at the primaries tomorrow: Gen. S. P. Jennison, A. R. Evans, George W. Griffith, Jr., C. S. Beardsley and F. E. Dudderer.

VARIOUS NOTES.

Mayor Labee has announced his committees as follows: Sanitary, Police and Streets, Potter, Moxley and Bemis; Finance, Auditing and Printing, Evans, Moxley and Potter; Ordinances and Judiciary, Evans, Moxley and Bemis.

Frank Wiggins and Henry Mack returned at noon today from a successful hunt with their hounds in the hills just south of town. They brought in four large wild cats as trophies of the chase.

Daniel Houser, the inventor of the combined harvester, is dangerously ill at the home of his son, J. O. Houser, on the San Bernardino road. No hopes are entertained for his recovery, and the physicians have announced that death is only a question of a few hours.

POMONA.

WEDDING CAUSES SURPRISE.

POMONA, April 27.—A wedding, which came as a surprise to many of their friends, was that of J. M. Mitchell and Mrs. Annie Lindsay, which occurred here tonight at the home of Mrs. Lindsay's sister, Mrs. J. E. McComas on Holt avenue. The groom is a pioneer resident and owns several houses and a ranch here. The newly-wedded couple will reside at the old Mitchell home on Holt avenue.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

Tomorrow evening in the Assembly Hall of the High School building on Pearl street, the Pomona and Pasadena High schools will hold an interscholastic debate.

A. B. Caldwell of this city is the recipient of a hat, sent to him from the Philippines by his son. It is made from native grasses and resembles a Panama, but is much softer and finer, weighing little more than an ounce.

Mrs. Margaret Fleming is about to build three modern store rooms on her property on Garey avenue and Bertie street.

OCEAN PARK.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.

OCEAN PARK, April 28.—The grading was commenced today and the lumber is on the ground for the three frame store rooms that are to be erected on Pier avenue for Pratt & Beardsley. The building will be 50x80 feet and one story. It is being erected on a leased lot for which $100 a month is paid for five years. The building will have a plate-glass front and will cost about $2500.

Maier & Zobelein have let the contract to J. F. Atkinson of Pasadena for the erection of a three-story brick block on their twenty-eight-foot lot at the northwest corner of Pier avenue and Ocean Front. Mr. Atkinson has also been awarded the contract for the construction of Chief of Police Hammel's three-story brick building on Pier avenue near the postoffice. Work is to begin on both of these buildings right away.

Milton Carlton is building a two-story residence on Westminster street. Its cost will be $5000.

C. L. Powell is erecting three one-story frame storerooms on South Second street at a cost of $2500.

Improvements on the Ocean Front just south of Pier avenue are in progress. The front for a distance of 230 feet and 100 feet in width is being planked. A railing will enclose it and seats and walks will be provided in the vicinity of the band stand for the convenience of the public. The plat will be covered with an awning when the sun is too bright or the wind strong, or when it rains. This work will cost $2500.

ON SHORT LINE BEACH.

In South Ocean Park, formerly Short Line Beach, the Edison Electric Company has a force of twenty men at work digging trenches and putting in a mile of four-inch gas mains. This will take the gas almost half way to Playa del Rey, from Pier avenue.

Mrs. C. H. Brouck has the lumber on the ground for the erection of a $3000 home on Mildred avenue, South Ocean Park.

Mr. Arnold of Los Angeles has commenced work on a $1600 cottage on Ocean Front, South Ocean Park.

HOLLYWOOD.

JEALS PAYS HIS FINE.

HOLLYWOOD, April 28.—City Recorder Merndon tonight passed judgment in the case of J. W. Jeals, convicted last Monday of selling liquor contrary to the city ordinances. Jeals was fined $150, which he promptly paid, and the city's first liquor case is now a closed incident. After the jury's verdict was announced last Monday, Jeals gave notice that he would appeal the case, and his action in paying the fine imposed this evening caused considerable surprise.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.

A called meeting of the Board of Trade's Committee on Streets and Parks was held this evening, and there was a general discussion of plans for street improvement, establishing official grades, oiling roads etc. Resolutions recommending important street work were passed, and will be referred to the Board of Trade for presentation to the City Trustees.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Rev. Herman J. Powell has accepted the call of the First Baptist Church and will begin his pastoral work June 1. Mr. Powell and his wife are both graduates of the University of Michigan. He comes here from Albuquerque, N. M., where he has been pastor of the First Church for several years.

The material for the parsonage of the Christian Church on Wilcox avenue arrived today and work on the building will begin tomorrow under the direction of O. W. Baird.

A council of ministers from the various Baptist churches of the county will be held in the Masonic Temple next Monday evening to recognize the First Baptist Church of Hollywood.

HERE AND THERE.

The pupils of the Union High School will leave for a picnic at Santa Monica Saturday at 8:25 o'clock on special cars.

Great interest is taken in the location of the new Union High School building.

The City Trustees will meet Friday night in committee of the whole to consider the matter of opening Pier avenue eastward.

Eugene Kensil, who went insane while washing dishes at a North Beach Café, is to be taken to Chicago by his relatives.

THUGS OF UNION.

Brutal Attack on Waiter of the "Rival" Restaurant is Foiled by Police.

Five union thugs jumped on a waiter named Oliver, employed at the Rival restaurant, at about 11:30 o'clock last night, and probably would have beaten him to death had it not been for the opportune arrival of Officer Willard Smith.

The assault occurred in front of the Arizona poolroom a few minutes after Oliver had left the restaurant where he is employed and was made for no other reason than that Oliver is a non-union waiter and is working for a restaurant where domination by labor agitators is not tolerated. Oliver and a friend were walking quietly when the assault was made. Four of the thugs escaped, but J. McCormick, one of the assailants, was arrested and locked up at the Police Station.

Oliver said that the attack had not intimidated him in the least and he intended to continue his work at the restaurant.

MEN CONTRACTED DISORDERS

DR. O. C. JOSLEN.
The Leading Specialist.

Every case of contracted disorder I treat is thoroughly cured. My patients have no relapses. When I pronounce a case cured there is not a particle of inflammation or inflammation remaining and there is not the slightest danger that the disease will return. No contracted disorder is so trivial as to warrant unskilful methods of treatment, and I especially solicit those cases that other doctors have been unable to cure.

"WEAKNESS"

I am the only physician employing scientific measures in treating functional weakness, and thoroughly and permanently curing every case. I accept no incurable cases at all, and if I treat you you can feel assured of a radical cure, and I am always willing to wait for my fee until a cure is effected. Varicocele, Lost Vigor, Organic Weakness, Contracted Disorders, Strictures, Specific Blood Poison and Piles. I also treat and cure promptly and thoroughly. No charge for consultation or advice, either at office or by mail.

My fees are fair, my cures are permanent and you can pay when cured.

I TREAT YOUR CONDITION BY DIRECT METHODS

Which are the Most Effective. I Accomplish More in One Week by Treating the "EXACT CAUSE," than can ever be accomplished by guessing through the mail.

FUNCTIONAL DISORDERS

MANY MEN are so afflicted and give the matter but little thought until the chronic stage is reached. My treatment is not in common use and I am confident it is the most effective from the results I get every week. Many have come to me for cure that have been disappointed in former treatment and upon examination, I find, were treated for conditions that did not exist, which accounts for failure.

Those who take my treatment are cured. Personal treatment and facilities adapted to the requirements are the foundation for quick and permanent cures. I wait for my fee until you are cured.

VARICOCELE—I cure in 4 to 6 days. Many men have been treated unsuccessfully for varicocele. My treatment is painless, and the results are complete and forever.

STRICTURE—I cure the right way, once and for all. I remove all urethral obstruction, inflammation and soreness and restore the membrane to a healthy condition, usually 10 to 15 days.

CONTRACTED DISEASE — Failure to quickly cure these conditions is due to harsh measures, which are the direct cause for chronic conditions. My treatment is the most cleanly and perfect known.

I cure Rectal, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Piles, Fistula and Blood Diseases, Wasting, Nervous and Chronic conditions, causing functional derangement, impairing strength and vitality.

Why Our Friday Surprises Are Popular

The enormous business done at this store naturally results in a number of short lines and odd pieces at the end of each week's business. Our object is to keep stocks complete and do not wish to carry the odd pieces in the general lines, so we have a clearance day every Friday and offer the merchandise in many cases at one-half its value; in some cases even less than the cost of the manufacturing. You can absolutely believe every statement we make in our ads, and by personal experience you will realize that we save you more money every Friday on articles for which you can find uses either personal or for your home than can any other store in Los Angeles. No matter what you may see advertised elsewhere, always bear in mind that "What others advertise we sell for less."
